CHildren, Grace be with you, Amen. I being taken from you in presence, and so tied up, that I cannot perform that duty, that from God*

The Preface.

doth lie upon me, to you-ward, for your further edifying and building up in Faith and Holiness, &c. yet that you may see my Soul hath fatherly care and desire after your spiritual and everlasting welfare, I now once again, as before from the top of Shenir and Hermon, so now from the Lions Dens, and from the Mountains of the Leopards ( Song 4. 8.) do look yet after you all, greatly longing to see your safe Arrival into THE desired Haven.

I thank God upon every Remembrance of you, and rejoice even while I stick between the Teeth of the Lions in the Wilderness, at the Grace, and Mercy, and Knowledge of Christ our Saviour, which God hath bestowed upon you, with abundance of Faith and Love. Your Hungerings and Thirstings also after further Acquaintance with the Father, in his Son; your Tenderneſs of Heart, your Trembling at Sin, your sober and holy Deportment also before both God and Men, is great Refreshment to me; for you are my Glory and Joy, 1 Theſ. 2. 20.

The Preface.

I have sent you here inclosed, a drop of that Honey that I have taken out of the Carcase of a Lion, Judg. 14 5, 6, 7, 8. I have eaten thereof myself also, and am much refreshed thereby. (Temptations, when we meet them at first, are as the Lion that roared upon Sampson; but if we overcome them, the next time we see them, we shall find a Nest of Honey within them.) The Philistines understand me not. It is something a Relation of the Work of God upon my Soul, even from the very first, till now; wherein you may perceive my Castings down, and Risings up; for he woundeth, and his hands make whole. It is written in the Scripture, Isa. 38. 19. The father to the children shall make known the truth of God. Yea, it was for this Reason I lay so long at Sinai, Lev. 4. 10, 11.) to see the Fire, and the Cloud, and the Darkness, that I might fear the Lord all the days of my Life upon Earth, and tell of his wondrous Works to my Children, Psal. 78. 3, 4, 5.

The Preface.

Moses, Numb. 33. 1, 2. writ of the Journeyings of the Children of Israel, from Egypt, to the Land of Canaan; and commanded also, that they did remember their forty Tears Travel in the Wilderness: Thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the Wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, and to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no, Deut. 8. 2, 3. Wherefore this I have endeavoured to do; and not only so, but to publish it also; that, if God will, others may be put in remembrance of what he hath done for their Souls, by reading his Work upon me.

It is profitable for Christians to be often calling to mind the very Beginnings of Grace with their Souls. It is a night to be much observed to the Lord, for bringing them out from the Land of Egypt. This is that Night of the Lord, to be observed of all the Children of Israel, in their Generations, Exod. 12. 42. My God, saith David, Psal. 42. 6. My Soul is

is cast down within me ; but I will remember thee from the Land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the Hill Mizar. He remembred also the Lion and the Bear, when he went to fight with the Giant of Gath, 1 Sam. 17. 36, 37.

It was Paul's accustomed manner, Act. 22. and that, when tried for his Life, Act. 24. even to open before his Judges the manner of his Conversion : He would think of that Day, and that Hour, in which he first did meet with Grace ; for he found it supported him. When God had brought the Children of Israel out of the Red-Sea, far into the Wilderness ; yet they must turn quite about thither again, to remember the drowning of their Enemies there, Numb. 14. 25. for though they sang his Praise before, yet they soon forgot his Works, Psal. 106. 11, 12.

In this Discourse of mine, you may see much ; much, I say, of the Grace of God towards me : I thank God, I can count it much ; for it was above my Sins, and Satan's Temptations too. I can remember my Fears, and Doubts, and sad

The Preface.

Months with comfort ; they are as the Head of Goliath in my Hand : There was nothing to David like Goliath's Sword, even that Sword that should have been sheathed in his Bowels ; for the very sight and remembrance of that did preach forth God's Deliverance to him. Oh, the Remembrance of my great Sins, of my great Temptations, and of my great Fears of perishing for ever ! They bring fresh into my Mind the Remembrance of my great Help, my great Support from Heaven, and the great Grace that God extended to such a Wretch as I.

*My dear Children, call to mind the former Days, and Tears of ancient Times : Remember also your Songs in the Night, and commune with your own Hearts, Psal. 73. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. Tea, look diligently, and leave no Corner therein unsearched ; for that is Treasure hid, even the Treasure of your first and second Experience of the Grace of God toward you. Remember, I say, the Word that first laid hold upon you : Remember your Terrors of Conscience, and Fear of Death

and Hell: Remember also your Tears and Prayers to God; yea, how you sighed under every Hedge of Mercy. Have you never an Hill Mizar to remember? Have you forgot the Close, the Milk-house, the Stable, the Barn, and the like, where God did visit your Souls? Remember also the Word; the Word, I say, upon which the Lord hath caused you to hope; If you have sinned against Light, if you are tempted to blaspheme, if you are down in Despair, if you think God fights against you, or if Heaven is hid from your Eyes; remember, it was thus with your Father; but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

I could have enlarged much in this my Discourse of my Temptations and Troubles for Sin; as also, of the merciful Kindness; and Working of God with my Soul: I could also have stepped into a Stile much higher than this, in which I have here discoursed, and could have adorned all things more than here I have seemed to do; but I dare not: God did not play in tempting of me; neither did I play, when I sunk as into

into a bottomless Pit, when the Pangs of Hell caught hold upon me ; wherefore I may not play in relating of them, but be plain and simple, and lay down the thing as it was : He that liketh it, let him receive it ; and he that does not, let him produce a better. Farewel.

My dear Children,

The Milk and Honey is beyond this Wilderness : God be merciful to you, and grant you be not slothful to go in to possess the Land.

Grace Abounding
SINNERS: OR,

A brief Relation of the exceeding Mercy of God in Christ, to his poor Servant, John Bunyan.

IN this my relation of the merciful working of God upon my Soul, it will not be amiss, if in the first place, I do, in a few words, give you an hint of my Pedigree, and manner of bringing up; that thereby the goodness and bounty of God towards me, may be the more advanced and magnified before the sons of men.

2. For

Grace abounding

2. For my Descent then, it was, as is well known by many, of a low and inconsiderable generation ; my father's house being of that rank that is meanest, and most despised of all the families in the Land. Wherefore I have not here, as others, to boast of Noble Blood, or of an high-born state according to the flesh ; though, all things considered, I magnifie the heavenly Majesty, for that by this door he brought me into this World, to partake of the Grace and Life that is in Christ by the Gospel.

3. But yet, notwithstanding the meanness and inconsiderableness of my Parents, it pleased God to put it into their hearts, to put me to School, to learn both to read and write ; the which I also attained, according to the rate of other poor men's children ; though to my shame, I confess, I did soon lose that little I learnt, even almost utterly, and that long before the Lord did work his gracious work of Conversion upon my Soul.

4. As for my own natural life, for the time that I was without God in the world, it was, indeed, according to the course of this world, and the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience, Eph. 2. 2, 3. It was my delight, to be taken captive by the Devil, at his will, 2 Tim. 2. 26. being filled with all unrighteousness: The which did also so strongly work, and put forth it self, both in my heart and life, and that from a child, that I had but few Equals (especially considering my years, which were tender, being few) both for cursing, swearing, lying and blaspheming the holy Name of God.

5. Yea, so settled and rooted was I in these things, that they became as a second Nature to me; the which, as I also have with soberness considered since, did so offend the Lord, that even in my childhood he did scare and affright me with fearful dreams, and did terrifie me with dreadful visions: For often, after I had spent this and the other day in sin, I have in my bed been greatly afflicted, while asleep, with the apprehensions of Devils, and wicked Spirits, who still, as I then thought, laboured to draw we away with them; of which I could never be rid.

6. Also I should, at these years, be greatly afflicted and troubled with the thoughts of the fearful torments of Hell-fire; still fearing that it would be my lot to be sound, at last, among those Devils, and hellish Fiends, who are there bound down with the chains and bonds of darkness, unto the judgment of the great Day.

7. These things, I say, when I was but a child, about nine or ten years old, did so distress my Soul, that then, in the midst of my

many sports, and childish vanities, amidst my vain companions, I was often much cast down and afflicted in my mind therewith; yet could I not let go my sins: Yea, I was also then so overcome with despair of Life and Heaven, that I should often wish, either that there had been no Hell, or that I had been a Devil; supposing they were only tormentors, that if it must needs be, that I indeed went thither, I might be rather a tormentor, than be tormented my self.

8. A while after, these terrible dreams did leave me, which I also soon forgot; for my pleasures did quickly cut off the remembrance of them, as if they had never been: Wherefore with more greediness, according to the strength of nature, I did still let loose the reins to my lust, and delighted in all transgression against the Law of God: So that until I came to the state of Marriage, I was the very ring-leader of all the Youth that kept me company, in all manner of vice and ungodliness.

9. Yea, such prevalency had the lusts and fruits of the flesh, in this poor Soul of mine, that had not a miracle of precious Grace prevented, I had not only perished by the stroak of Eternal Justice, but had also laid my self open, even to the stroak of those Laws, which bring some to disgrace, and open shame, before the face of the world.

10. In these days the thoughts of Religion were very grievous to me; I could neither endure it my self, nor that any other should: So that when I have seen some read in these books that concerned Christian Piety, it would be as it were a prison to me. Then I said unto God, Depart from me, for I desire not the knowledge of thy ways, Job 21. 14, 15. I was now void of all good consideration; Heaven and Hell were both out of sight and mind; and as for Saving and Damning, they were least in my thoughts. O Lord, thou knowest my life; and my ways were not hid from thee.

11. But this I well remember, That though I could my self sin with the greatest delight and ease, and also take pleasure in the vile-ness of my companions; yet even then, if I have at any time seen wicked things by those who professed goodness, it would make my spirit tremble. As once, above all the rest, when I was in my heighth of vanity, yet hearing one to swear, that was reckoned for a religious man, it had so great a stroak upon my spirit, that it made my heart ake.

12. But God did not utterly leave me, but followed me still; not now with convictions, but judgments; yet such as were mixed with mercy. For once I fell into a crick of the Sea, and hardly escaped drowning: Another time I fell out of a Boat, into Bedford-River,
but

but Mercy yet preserved me alive: Besides, another time, being in the field with one of my companions, it chanced that an Adder passed over the high-way; so I having a stick in mine hand, struck her over the back; and having stunned her, I forced open her mouth with my stick, and plucked her sting out with my fingers; by which act, had not God been merciful to me, I might, by my desperateness, have brought my self to mine end.

13. This also I have taken notice of, with thanksgiving; When I was a Soldier, I, with others, were drawn out to go to such a place to besiege it; but when I was just ready to go, one of the Company desired to go in my room; to which, when I had consented, he took my place; and coming to the Siege, as he stood Sentinel, he was shot into the head with a Musket-bullet, and died.

14. Here, as I said, were Judgments and Mercy, but neither of them did awaken my Soul to Righteousness; wherefore I sinned still, and grew more and more rebellious against God, and careless of mine own Salvation.

15. Presently after this, I changed my condition into a married state; and my mercy was, to light upon a wife, whose father was counted godly: This woman and I, though we came together as poor as poor might be, (not having so much house-hold-stuff as a dish or spoon betwixt us both) yet this she had for her part, The Plain Man's Path-way to Heaven, and The Practice of Piety, which her father had left her, when he died. In these two books I should sometimes read with her, wherein I also found some things that were somewhat pleasing to me; (but all this while I met with no conviction.) She also would be often telling of me, what a godly man her father was, and how he would reprove and correct vice, both in his house, and amongst his neighbours; what a strict and holy life he lived in his day, both in word and deed.

16. Wherefore these books, with this relation, though they did not reach my heart, to awaken it about my sad and sinful state, yet they did beget within me some desires to Religion: So that, because I knew no better, I fell in very eagerly with the Religion of the times; so wit, to go to Church twice a day, and that go with the foremost; and there should very devoutly, both say and sing as others did, yet retaining my wicked life: But withal, I was so over-run with the spirit of Superstition, that I adored, and that with great devotion, even all things (both the High-place, Priest, Clerk, Vestments, Service, and what else) belonging to the Church; counting all things holy, that were therein contained; and especially, the Priest and Clerk most happy, and without doubt, doubt, greatly blessed, because they were the Servants, as I then thought, of God; and were principal in the holy Temple, to do his work therein.

17. This conceit grew so strong, in little time, upon my spirit, that had I but seen a Priest (though never so sordid and debauched in his life) I should find my spirit fall under him, reverence him, and knit unto him: yea, I thought, for the love I did bear unto them (supposing they were the Ministers of God) I could have lain down at their feet, and have been trampled upon by them; their Name, their Garb, and Work did so intoxicate and bewitch me.

18. After I had been thus for some considerable time, another thought came in my mind; and that was, Whether we were of the Israelites, or no? For finding in the Scriptures, that they were once the peculiar people of God, thought I, If I were once of this race, my Soul must needs be happy. Now again I found within me a great longing to be resolved about this Question, but could not tell how I should: At last, I asked my father of it; who told me, No, we were not. Wherefore then I fell in my spirit, as to the hopes of that, and so remained.

19. But all this while, I was not sensible of the danger and evil of sin; I was kept from considering considering that sin would damn me, what Religion soever I followed, unless I was found in Christ: Nay, I never thought of him, nor whether there was such an one, or no. Thus Man, while blind, doth wander, but wearieth himself with vanity. for he knoweth not the way to the City of God, Eccles. 10. 15.

20. But one day (amongst all the Sermons our Parson made) his Subject was, to treat of the Sabbath-day, and of the evil of breaking that, either with labour, sports, or otherwise: Now I was, notwithstanding my Religion, one that took much delight in all manner of vice; and especially, that was the day that I did solace my self therewith.) Wherefore I fell in my Conscience under his Sermon, my thinking and believing that he made that Sermon on purpose to shew me my evil-doing: And at that time I felt what guilt was, though never before, that I can remember; but then I was, for the present, greatly loaden therewith, and so went home when the Sermon was ended, with a great burthen on my spirit.

21. This, for that instant, did benumb the sinews of my best delights, and did imbitter my former pleasures to me: But behold, it lasted not; for before I had well dined, the trouble began to go off my mind, and my heart returned to its old course: But Oh! how glad was I, that this trouble was gone from from me, and that the fire was put out, that might sin again without control! Wherefore when I had satisfied Nature with my food, shook the Sermon out of my mind, and to my old custom of sports and gaming I returned with great delight.

22. But the same day, as I was in the middle of a game at Cat, and having struck it one blow from the hole, just as I was about to strike it the second time, a voice did suddenly dart from Heaven, into my Soul, which said, Will thou leave thy sins, and go to Heaven; or have thy sins, and go to Hell? At this I was put to an exceeding maze; wherefore, leaving my Cat upon the ground, I looked up to Heaven, and was as if I had, with the eyes of my understanding, seen the Lord Jesus looking down upon me, as being very hotly displeased with me, and as if he did severely threaten me with some grievous punishment for these, and other my ungodly practices.

23. I had no sooner thus conceived in my mind, but suddenly this conclusion was fastened on my spirit (for the former hint did set my sins again before my face: ) That I had been a great and grievous sinner, and that it was now too late for me to look after Heaven; for Christ would not forgive me, nor pardon my transgressions. Then I fell to musing upon this also; and while I was thinking of it, and fearing ring lest it should be so, I felt my heart sink in despair, concluding it was too late; and therefore I resolved in my mind, I would go on in sin: For, thought I, if the case be thus, my state is surely miserable; miserable if I leave my sins, and but miserable if I follow them: I can but be damned; and if it must be so, I had as good be damned for many sins, as be damned for few.

24. Thus I stood in the midst of my play, before all that then were present; but yet I told them nothing: But, I say, I having made this conclusion, I returned desperately to my sport again; and I well remember, that presently this kind of despair did so possess my Soul, that I was perswaded, I could never attain to other comfort than what I should get in sin; for Heaven was gone already, so that on that I must not think: Wherefore I found within me a great desire to take my fill of sin, still studying what sin was yet to be committed, that I might taste the sweetness of it; and I made as much haste as I could to fill my belly with its delicacies, lest I should die before I had my desire; for that I feared greatly. In these things, I protest before God, I lye not, neither do I feign this form of speech; these were really, strongly, and with all my heart, my desires: The good Lord whose mercy is unsearchable, forgive me my transgressions.

25 (And I am very confident, that this temptation of the Devil is more usual amongst poor creatures than many are aware of, even to over-run the spirits with a scurfy and seared frame of heart, and benumbing of conscience; which frame he stilly and silyly supplieth with such despair, that though not much guilt attendeth Souls, yet they continually have a secret conclusion within them, that there is no hopes for them; for they have loved sins, therefore after them they will go, Jer. 2. 25. and 18. 12.)

26. Now therefore I went on in sin with great greediness of mind, still grudging that I could not be so satisfied with it as I would. This did continue with me about a month or more: But one day, as I was standing at a neighbour's shop-window, and there cursing and swearing, and playing the mad-man, after my wonted manner, there sate within the, woman of the house, and heard me; who, though she also was a very loose and ungodly wretch, yet protested that I swore and cursed at that most fearful rate, that she was made to tremble to hear me; and told me further, That I was the ungodliest fell-w, for swearing, that ever she heard in all her life; and that I, by thus doing, was able to spoil all the Youth in the whole Town, if they came but in my company.

27. At this reproof I was silenced, and put to secret shame ; and that too, as I thought, before the God of Heaven : Wherefore while I stood there, and hanging down my head, I wished with all my heart that I might be a little child again, that my father might learn me to speak without this wicked way of swearing ; for, thought I, I am so accustomed to it, that it is but in vain for me to think of a reformation, for I thought it could never be.

28. But how it came to pass, I know not ; I did, from this time forward, so leave my swearing, that it was a great wonder to myself to observe it ; and whereas before I knew not how to speak, unless I put an Oath before, and another behind, to make my words have authority ; now I could, without it, speak better, and with more pleasantness, than ever I could before. All this while I knew not Jesus Christ, neither did I leave my sports and play.

29. But quickly after this, I fell in company with one poor man, that made profession of Religion ; who, as I then thought, did talk pleasantly of the Scriptures, and of the matters of Religion : Wherefore falling into some love and liking to what he said, I betook me to my Bible, and began to take great pleasure in reading, but especially with the Historical part thereof ; for as for Paul's Epistles, and such like Scriptures, I could not away with them ; being as yet ignorant, either of the corruptions of my nature, or of the want and worth of Jesus Christ to save me.

30. Wherefore I fell to some outward Reformation, both in my words and life, and did set the Commandments before me for my way to Heaven ; which Commandments I also did strive to keep, and, as I thought, did keep them pretty well sometimes, and then I should have comfort ; yet now and then should break one, and so afflict my Conscience ; but then I should repent, and say, I was sorry for it, and promise God to do better next time, and there get help again, for then I thought I pleased God as well as any man in England.

31. Thus I continued about a year ; at which time our Neighbours did take me to be a very godly man, a new and religious man, and did marvel much to see such a great and famous alteration in my life and manners ; and indeed, so it was, though yet I knew not Christ, nor Grace, nor Faith, nor Hope ; for, as I have well seen since, had I then died, my state had been most fearful.

32. But, I say, my Neighbours were amazed at this my great Conversion ; from prodigious prophaneness, to something like a moral life ; and truly, so they well might for this my Conversion was as great, as for Tom of Bebbles to become a sober man. Now therefore therefore they began to praise, to command, and speak well of me, both to my face, and behind my back. Now I was, as they said, become godly; now I was become a right honest man. But, Oh! when I understood that these were their words and opinions of me, it pleased me mighty well: For though as yet I was nothing but a poor painted Hypocrite, yet I loved to be talked of, as one that was truly Godly. I was proud of my Godliness; and indeed, I did all I did, either to be seen of, or to be well spoken of by men: And thus I continued for about a twelve-month, or more.

33. Now you must know, that before this, I had taken much delight in ringing; but my Conscience beginning to be tender, I thought such practice was but vain, and therefore forced my self to leave it, yet my mind hanckered; wherefore I should go to the Steeple-house, and look on, though I durst not ring: But I thought this did not become Religion neither, yet I forced my self, and would look on still: But quickly after, I began to think, How if one of the Bells should fall? Then I chose to stand under a main Beam, that lay overhwart the Steeple, from side to side, thinking there I might stand sure. But then I should think again, Should the Bell fall with a swing, it might first hit the wall, and then rebounding upon me, might kill me, for all this Beam:

This made me stand in the Steeple-door; and now, thought I, I am safe enough; for if a Bell should then fall, I can slip out behind these thick walls, and so be preserved notwithstanding.

34 So after this, I would yet go to see them ring, but would not go further than the Steeple-door; but then it came into my head, How if the Steeple it self should fall? and this thought (it may fall for ought I know) when I stood and looked on, did continually so shake my mind, that I durst not stand at the Steeple-door any longer, but was forced to flee, for fear the Steeple should fall upon my head.

35. Another thing was, my dancing; I was a full year, before I could quite leave that; but all this while, when I thought I kept this or that Commandment, or did, by word or deed, any thing that I thought were good, I had great peace in my Conscience; and should think with my self, God cannot chuse but be now pleased with me; yea, to relate it in my own way, I thought no man in England could please God better than I.

36. But, poor wretch as I was, I was all this while ignorant of Jesus Christ, and going about to establish my own Righteousness; and had perished therein, had not God, in mercy, shewed me more of my state by nature.

37. Bu

37. But upon a day, the good Providence of God did cast me to Bedford, to work on my Calling; and in one of the streets of that Town, I came where there were three or four poor women sitting at a door, in the Sun, talking about the things of God; and being now willing to hear them discourse, I drew near to hear what they said, for I was now a brisk Talker also my self, in the matters of Religion: But I may say, I heard, but I understood not; for they were far above, out of my reach: Their talk was about a new birth, the work of God on their hearts, also how they were convinced of their miserable state by nature; they talked how God had visited their Souls with his love in the Lord Jesus, and with what words and promises they had been refreshed, comforted and supported against the temptations of the Devil: Moreover, they reasoned of the suggestions and temptations of Satan in particular; and told to each other, by which they had been afflicted, and how they were born up under his assaults: They also discoursed of their own wretchedness of heart, of their unbelief; and did condemn, slight and abhor their own Righteousness, as filthy and insufficient to do them any good.

38. And me-thought they spake, as if joy did make them speak; they spake with such pleasantness of Scripture-language, and with such appearance of Grace in all they said, that they were to me, as if they had found a new world, as if they were people that dwelt alone, and were not to be reckoned amongst their Neighbours, Numb. 23. 9.

39. At this I felt my own heart began to shake, and mistrust my condition to be naught; for I saw, that in all my thoughts about Religion and Salvation, the new Birth did never enter into my mind, neither knew I the comfort of the Word and Promise, nor the deceitfulness and treachery of my own wicked heart. As for secret thoughts, I took no notice of them; neither did I understand what Satan's temptations were, nor how they were to be withstood and resisted, &c.

40. Thus therefore, when I had heard and considered what they said, I left them, and went about my employment again, but their talk and discourse went with me; also my heart would tarry with them, for I was greatly affected with their words, both because by them I was convinced, that I wanted the true tokens of a truly godly man, and also because by them I was convinced of the happy and blessed condition of him that was such an one.

41. Therefore I should often make it my business to be going again and again into the company of these poor people, for I could not stay away; and the more I went amongst them, them, the more I did question my condition ; and, as I still do remember, presently I found two things within me, at which I did sometimes marvel ; (especially considering what a blind, ignorant, sordid and ungodly wretch but just before I was : ) The one was a very great softness and tenderness of heart, which caused me to fall under the conviction of what by Scripture they asserted ; and the other was, a great bending in my mind to a continual meditating on them, and on all other good things which at any time I heard or read of.

42. By these things my mind was now so turned, that it lay like an Horse-leach at the Vein, still crying out, Give, give, Prov. 30. 15. Yea, it was so fixed on Eternity, and on the things about the Kingdom of Heaven ( that is, so far as I knew, though as yet, God knows, I knew but little ) that neither pleasures, nor profits, nor perswasions, nor threats could loose it, or make it let go its hold ; and though I may speak it with shame, yet it is, in very deed, a certain truth, it would then have been as difficult for me to have taken my mind from Heaven to Earth, as I have found it often since to get again from Earth to Heaven.

43. One thing I may not omit : There was a young man in our Town, to whom my heart before was knit more than to any other ; but he being a most wicked creature for cursing and swearing, and whoring, I now shook him off, and forsook his company; but about a quarter of a year after I had left him, I met him in a certain Lane, and asked him how he did; he, after his old swearing and mad way, answered, He was well. But, Harry, said I, why do you swear and curse thus? What will become of you, if you die in this condition? He answered me in a great chafe, What would the Devil do for company, if it were not for such as I am?

44. About this time I met with some Ranters Books, that were put forth by some of our Country-men; which Books were also highly in esteem by several old Professors; some of these I read, but was not able to make a judgment about them; wherefore, as I read in them, and thought upon them (feeling my self unable to judge) I should betake my self to hearty prayer, in this manner; O Lord, I am a fool, and not able to know the Truth from Error: Lord, leave me not to my own Blindness, either to approve of, or condemn this Doctrine: If it be of God, let me not despise it; if it be of the Devil, let me not embrace it. Lord, I lay my Soul, in this matter, only at thy foot; let me not be deceived, I humbly beseech thee. I had one religious intimate Companion all this while, and that was the poor man that I spoke of before; but about this time, he also turned a most devilish Ranter, and gave himself up to all manner of filthiness, especially Unclean-cleanness:

cleanness : He would also deny that there was a God, Angel, or Spirit ; and would laugh at all exhortations to sobriety : When I laboured to rebuke his wickedness, he would laugh the more, and pretend that he had gone through all Religions, and could never light on the right, till now : He told me also, that in little time, I should see all Professors turn to the ways of the Ranters. Wherefore, abominating those cursed principles, I left his company forthwith, and became to him as great a stranger, as I had been before a familiar.

45. Neither was this man only a temptation to me, but my Calling lying in the Country, I happened to light into several peoples company ; who, though strict in Religion formerly, yet were also swept away by these Ranters. These would also talk with me of their ways, and condemn me as legal and dark ; pretending that they only had attained to perfection, that could do what they would, and not sin. Oh ! These temptations were suitable to my flesh, I being but a young man, and my nature in its prime ; but God, who had, as I hope, designed me for better things, kept me in the fear of his Name, and did not suffer me to accept of such cursed principles. And blessed be God, who put it into my heart to cry to him to be kept and directed, still distrusting mine own wisdom ; for I have since seen even the effect of that prayer, in his preserving me, not only from Ranting Errors, but from those also that have sprung up since. The Bible was precious to me in those days.

46. And now, me-thought, I began to look into the Bible with new eyes, and read as I never did before; and especially the Epistles of the Apostle St. Paul were sweet and pleasant to me; and indeed, I was then never out of the Bible, either by reading, or meditation; still crying out to God, that I might know the truth, and way to Heaven and Glory.

47. And as I went on and read I lighted on that passage, To one is given by the Spirit, the word of wisdom; to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; and to another, faith, &c. 1 Cor. 12. And though, as I have since seen, that by this Scripture the Holy Ghost intends, in special, things extraordinary, yet on me it then did fasten with conviction, that I did want things ordinary, even that understanding and wisdom that other Christians had. On this word I mused, and could not tell what to do; especially, this word [Faith] put me to it; for I could not help it, but sometimes must question whether I had any Faith, or no; but I was loath to conclude, I had no Faith; for if I do so, thought I, then I shall count my self a very Cast-away indeed.

48. No, said I with my self, though I am convinced convinced that I am an ignorant Sot, and that I want those blessed Gifts of Knowledge and Understanding that other good people have; yet at a venture I will conclude, I am not altogether faithless, though I know not what Faith is: For it was shewed me, and that too (as I have seen since) by Satan, that those who conclude themselves in a faithless state, have neither rest nor quiet in their souls; and I was loth to fall quite into despair.

49. Wherefore by this suggestion, I was, for a while, made afraid to see my want of Faith; but God would not suffer me thus to undo and destroy my Soul, but did continually, against this my blind and sad conclusion, create still within me such suppositions, inso-much that I could not rest content, until I did now come to some certain knowledge, whether I had Faith, or no; this always running in my mind, But how if you want Faith indeed? But how can you tell you have Faith? And besides, I saw for certain, if I had it not, I was sure to perish for ever.

50. So that though I endeavoured at the first to look over the business of Faith, yet in a little time, I better considering the matter, was willing to put my self upon the trial, whether I had Faith or no. But alas, poor wretch! so ignorant and brutish was I, that I knew, to this day, no more how to do it, than I know how:

how to begin and accomplish that rare and curious piece of Art, which I never yet saw or considered.

§ 1. Wherefore while I was thus considering, and being put to my plunge about it (for you must know, that as yet I had, in this matter, broken my mind to no man, only did hear and consider) the Tempter came in with his delusion, That there was no way for me to know I had Faith, but by trying to work some Miracle; urging those Scriptures that seem to look that way, for the inforcing and strengthening his temptation. Nay, one day, as I was betwixt Elstow and Bedford the temptation was hot upon me, to try if I had Faith, by doing some Miracle; which Miracle, at that time, was this; I must say to the Puddles that were in the Horse-pads, Be dry; and to the dry places, Be you the Puddles: And truly, one time I was going to say so indeed; but just as I was about to speak, this thought came into my mind; But go under yonder Hedge, and pray first, that God would make you able: But when I had concluded to pray, this came hot upon me; That if I prayed, and came again, and tried to do it, and yet did nothing notwithstanding, then be sure I had no Faith, but was a Cast-away, and lost. Nay, thought I, if it be so, I will not try yet, but will stay a little longer.

§ 2. So I continued at a great loss; for I thought, thought, if they only had Faith, which could do so wonderful things, then I concluded, that for the present I neither had it, nor yet for time to come were ever like to have it. Thus I was tossed betwixt the Devil and my own ignorance, and so perplexed, especially at some times, that I could not tell what to do.

53. About this time the state and happiness of these poor people at Bedford was thus, in a kind of Vision, presented to me: I saw, as if they were set on the Sunny-side of some high Mountain, there refreshing themselves with the pleasant beams of the Sun, while I was shivering and shrinking in the Cold, afflicted with Frost, Snow and dark Clouds: Me-thought also, betwixt me and them, I saw a Wall that did compass about this Mountain; now through this Wall my Soul did greatly desire to pass; concluding, that if I could, I would go even into the very midst of them, and there also comfort my self with the heat of their Sun.

54. About this Wall I thought my self to go again and again, still prying as I went, to see if I could find some way or passage, by which I might enter therein; but none could I find for some time: At the last, I saw, as it were, a narrow gap, like a little door-way, in the Wall, thorough which I attempted to pass: Now the passage being very strait and narrow, I made many offers to get in, but all in vain,
even

even until I was well nigh quite beat out by striving to get in; at last with great striving, me-thought I at first did get in my head, and after that, by a sideling striving, my shoulders, and my whole body: Then was I exceeding glad, and went and sat down in the midst of them, and so was comforted with the light and heat of their Sun.

55. Now this Mountain and Wall, &c. was thus made out to me; the Mountain signified the Church of the Living God; the Sun that shone thereon, the comfortable shining of his merciful Face on them that were therein; the Wall I thought was the Word, that did make separation between the Christians and the World; and the Gap which was in this Wall, I thought, was Jesus Christ, who is the Way to God the Father, Joh. 14. 6. Mat. 7. 14. But forasmuch as the Passage was wonderful narrow, even so narrow, that I could not but with great difficulty enter in thereat, it shewed me, that none could enter into Life, but those that were in down-right earnest, and unless also they left this wicked World behind them; for here was only room for Body and Soul, but not for Body and Soul and Sin.

56. This resemblance abode upon my Spirit many days; all which time I saw my self in a forlorn and sad condition, but yet was provoked to a vehement hunger and desire to be one of that number that did sit in the Sun-shine: Now also I should pray, wherever I was; whether at home, or abroad; in house, or field; and should also often, with lifting up of heart, sing that of the fifty first Psalm, O Lord, consider my distress; for as yet I knew not where I was.

57 Neither as yet could I attain to any comfortable persuasion that I had Faith in Christ; but instead of having satisfaction, here I began to find my Soul to be assaulted with fresh doubts about my future happiness; especially with such as these, Whether I was elected: But how if the Day of Grace should now be past and gone?

58. By these two temptations I was very much afflicted and disquieted; sometimes by one, and sometimes by the other of them. And first, to speak of that about my questioning my Election; I found at this time, that though I was in a flame to find the way to Heaven and Glory, and though nothing could beat me off from this, yet this question did so offend and discourage me, that I was, especially at some times, as if the very strength of my body also had been taken away by the force and power thereof. This Scripture also did seem to me, to trample upon all my desires; It is neither in him that willetb, nor in him that runneth; but in God that sheweth mercy, Rom. 9.

59. With this Scripture I could not tell what to do; for I evidently saw, unless that the great God, of his infinite Grace and Bounty, had voluntarily chosen me to be a Vessel of Mercy, though I should desire, and long, and labour until my heart did break, no good could come of it. Therefore this would still stick with me, How can you tell you are elected? And what if you should not? How then?

60. O Lord, thought I, what if I should not indeed? It may be, you are not, said the Tempter: It may be so indeed, thought I. Why then, said Satan, you had as good leave off, and strive no further; for if, indeed, you should not be elected and chosen of God, there is no talk of your being saved; For it is neither in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth; but in God that sheweth mercy.

61. By these things I was driven to my wits end, not knowing what to say, or how to answer these temptations; ( indeed, I little thought that Satan had thus assaulted me, but that rather it was my own prudence, thus to start the question; ) for that the Elect only attained Eternal Life, that I, without scruple, did heartily close withal; but that my self was one of them, there lay the question.

62. Thus therefore, for several days, I was greatly assaulted and perplexed; and was often, when I have been walking, ready to sink where I went, with faintness in my mind: But one day, day, after I had been so many weeks oppressed and cast down therewith, as I was now quite giving up the Ghost of all my hopes of ever attaining life, that sentence fell with weight upon my spirit; Look at the generations of old, and see: Did ever any trust in God, and were confounded?

63. At which I was greatly lightened, and encouraged in my Soul; for thus at that very instant, it was expounded to me: Begin at the beginning of Genesis, and read to the end of the Revelations, and see if you can find that there was any that ever trusted in the Lord, and was confounded. So coming home, I presently went to my Bible, to see if I could find that saying, not doubting but to find it presently; for it was so fresh, and with such strength and comfort on my spirit, that I was as if it talked with me.

64. Well, I looked, but I found it not; only it abode upon me: Then I did ask first this good man, and then another, if they knew where it was; but they knew no such place. At this I wonder'd, that such a sentence should so suddainly, and with such comfort and strength, sieze and abide upon my heart, and yet that none could find it (for I doubted not, but it was in holy Scripture.)

65. Thus I continued above a year, and could not find the place; but at last, casting my eye into the Apocrypha-books, I found it in Ecclesiasticus, ecclesiasticus, Eccclus. 2. 10. This, at the first, did somewhat daunt me; but because by this time I had got more experience of the love and kindness of God, it troubled me the less; especially when I considered, that though it was not in those Texts that we call Holy and Canonical, yet forasmuch as this sentence was the sum and substance of many of the Promises, it was my duty to take the comfort of it; and I bless God for that word, for it was of God to me: That word doth still, at times, shine before my face.

66. After this, that other doubt did come with strength upon me, But how if the Day of Grace should be past and gone? How if you have over-stood the time of Mercy? Now I remember, that one day, as I was walking into the Country, I was much in the thoughts of this, But how if the Day of Grace be past? And to aggravate my trouble, the Tempter presented to my mind those good people of Bedford, and suggested thus unto me; That these being converted already, they were all that God would save in those parts; and that I came too late, for these had got the Blessing before I came.

67. Now was I in great distress, thinking in very deed, that this might well be so; wherefore I went up and down bemoaning my sad condition; counting my self far worse than a thousand thousand fools for standing off thus long, and spending so many years in sin as I have done; still crying out, Oh, that I had turned sooner! Oh, that I had turned seven years ago! It made me also angry with my self, to think that I should have no more wit, but to trifle away my time, till my Soul and Heaven were lost.

68. But when I had been long vexed with this fear, and was scarce able to take one step more, just about the same place where I received my other encouragement, these words broke in upon my mind, Compel them to come in, that my house may be filled; and yet there is room, Luk. 14. 22, 23. These words, but especially them, And yet there is room, were sweet words to me; for truly, I thought that by them I saw that there was place enough in Heaven for me; and moreover, that when the Lord Jesus did speak these words, he then did think of me; and that he knowing the time would come, that I should be afflicted with fear that there was no place left for me in his bosom, did before speak this word, and leave it upon record, that I might find help thereby against this vile temptation. This I then verily believed.

69. In the light and encouragement of this Word, I went a pretty while; and the comfort was the more, when I thought that the Lord Jesus should think on me so long ago, and that he should speak them words on purpose for my sake ; for I did think verily, that he did on purpose speak them, to encourage me withal.

70. But I was not without my temptations to go back again ; temptations, I say, both from Satan, mine own heart, and carnal acquaintances ; but, I thank God, these were out-weighted by that sound sense of Death, and of the Day of Judgment, which abode, as it were, continually in my view. I should often also think on Nebuchadnezzar ; of whom it is said, He had given him all the kingdoms of the earth, Dan. 5. 18, 19. Yet, thought I, if this great man had all his portion in this World, one hour in Hell-fire would make him forget all. Which Consideration was a great help to me.

71. I was also made, about this time, to see something concerning the Beasts that Moses counted clean, and unclean : I thought those Beasts were types of men ; the clean, types of them that were the people of God ; but the unclean, types of such as were the children of the wicked One. Now I read, that the clean Beasts chewed the Cud ; that is, thought I, they shew us, we must feed upon the Word of God : They also parted the Hoof ; I thought that signified, we must part, if we would be saved, with the ways of ungodly men. And also, in further reading about them, I found, that though we did chew the Cud, as the Hare; yet if we walked with claws, like a Dog; or if we did part the Hoof, like the Swine; yet if we did not clew the Cud, as the Sheep, we were still, for all that, but unclean: for I thought the Hare to be a type of those that talk of the Word, yet walk in ways of sin; and that the Swine was like him that parteth with his outward pollutions, but still wanteth the word of Faith, without which, there could be no way of Salvation, let a man be never so devout, Deut. 14. After this, I found by reading the Word, that those that must be glorified with Christ in another World, must be called by him here; called to the partaking of a share in his Word and Righteousness, and to the comforts and first fruits of his Spirit, and to a peculiar interest in all those heavenly things, which do indeed, fore fit the Soul for that Rest, and House of Glory, which is in Heaven above.

72. Here again I was at a very great stand; not knowing what to do, fearing I was not called; for, thought I, if I be not called, what then can do me good? None but those who are effectually called, inherit the Kingdom of Heaven. But oh, how I now loved those words that spake of a Christian's Calling! as when the Lord said to one, Fellow me; and to another, Come after me: And, oh, thought I, that he would say so to me too! How gladly would I run after him!

74. I cannot now express with what longings and breathings in my Soul, I cried to Christ to call me. Thus I continued for a time, all on a flame to be converted to Jesus Christ; and did also see at that day, such glory in a converted state, that I could not be contented without a share therein. Gold! Could it have been gotten for Gold, what could I have given for it! Had I had a whole World, it had all gone ten thousand times over for this, that my Soul might have been in a converted state.

75. How lovely now was every one in my eyes, that I thought to be converted men and women! They shone, they walked like a people that carried the Broad Seal of Heaven about them. Oh! I saw the lot was fallen to them in pleasant places, and they had a goodly Heritage, Psal. 16. But that which made me sick, was that of Christ, in Mark; He went up into a Mountain, and called to him whom he would, and they came unto him, Mar. 3. 13.

76. This Scripture made me faint and fear, yet it kindled fire in my Soul. That which made me fear, was this; lest Christ should have no liking to me, for he called whom he would. But, Oh! the glory that I saw in that condition did still so engage my heart, that I could seldom read of any that Christ did call, but I presently wished, Would I had been in their Cloaks, Would I had been born Peter,
Would

Would I had been born John ; Or would I had been by, and had heard him when he called them ; how would I have cried, O Lord, call me also ? But, Oh ! I feared he would not call me.

77. And truly, the Lord let me go thus many months together, and shewed me nothing ; either that I was already, or should be called hereafter : But at last, after much time spent, and many groans to God, that I might be made partaker of the holy and heavenly Calling, that word came in upon me, I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed, for the Lord dwelleth in Zion, Joel 3. 21. These words I thought were sent, to encourage me to wait still upon God ; and signified unto me, that if I were not already, yet time might come, I might be in truth converted unto Christ.

78. About this time I began to break my mind to those poor people in Bedford, and to tell them my condition ; which when they had heard ; they told Mr. Gifford of me ; who himself also took occasion to talk with me, and was willing to be well perswaded of me, though I think but from little grounds : But he invited me to his house, where I should hear him confer with others, about the dealings of God with their Souls ; from all which I still received more conviction, and from that time began to see something of the vanity, and inward wretchedness of my wicked heart, for as yet I knew no great matter therein ; but now it began to be discovered unto me, and also to work at that rate as it never did before. Now I evidently found, that lusts and corruptions put forth themselves within me, in wicked thoughts and desires, which I did not regard before ; my desires also for Heaven and Life began to fail ; I found also, that whereas before my Soul was full of longings after God, now it began to hanker after every foolish vanity ; yea, my heart would not be moved to mind that that was good ; it began to be careless, both of my Soul, and Heaven ; it would now continually hang back, both to, and in every duty ; and was as a clog on the leg of a Bird, to hinder me from flying.

79. Nay, thought I, now I grow worse and worse ; now I am farther from conversion than ever I was before : Wherefore I began to sink greatly in my Soul, and began to entertain such discouragement in my heart, as laid me as low as Hell. If now I should have burned at the Stake, I could not believe that Christ had love for me : Alas ! I could neither hear him, nor see him, nor feel him, nor favour any of his things : I was driven as with a Tempest, my heart would be unclean, the Canaanites would dwell in the Land.

80. Some-

80. Sometimes I would tell my condition to the people of God ; which, when they heard, they would pity me, and would tell me of the Promises ; but they had as good have told me, that I must reach the Sun with my finger, as have bidden me receive, or relie upon the Promise ; and as soon as I should have done it, all my sense and feeling was against me ; and I saw I had an heart that would sin, and that lay under a Law that would condemn.

81. These things have often made me think of the Child which the Father brought to Christ ; who, while he was yet a coming to him, was thrown down by the Devil ; and also so rent and torn by him, that he lay and wallowed, foaming, Luk. 9. 42. Mar. 9. 20.

82. Further, in these days, I should find my heart to shut it self up against the Lord, and against his holy Word : I have found my Unbelief to fet, as it were, the shoulder to the door, to keep him out ; and that too even then, when I have, with many a bitter sigh, cried, Good Lord, break it open : Lord, break these Gates of Brass, and cut the Bars of iron asunder, Psal. 107. 16. Yet that word would sometimes create in my heart a peaceable pause, as if thou hadst said, I have heard thee, tho thou hast not known me, Isa. 45. 5.

83. But all this while, as to the act of sinning, I never was more tender than now ; my hinder parts were inward ; I durst not take a pin, or stick, though but so big as a straw; for my Conscience now was sore, and would smart at every touch: I could not now tell how to speak my words, for fear I should misplace them. Oh, how gingerly did I then go, in all I did or said! I found my self as on a miry Bog, that shook if I did but stir, and was, as there left both of God, and Christ, and the Spirit, and all good things.

84. But I observe, though I was such a great sinner before conversion, yet God never much charged the guilt of the sins of my Ignorance upon me; only he shewed me, I was lost if I had not Christ, because I had been a sinner. I saw that I wanted a perfect Righteousness, to present me without fault before God; and this Righteousness was no where to be found, but in the Person of Jesus Christ.

85. But my original and inward pollution, that, that was my plague and my affliction; that I saw, at a dreadful rate, always putting forth itself within me; that I had the guilt of, to amazement; by reason of that, I was more loathsome in mine own eyes, than was a toad, and I thought I was so in God's eyes too: Sin and corruption, I said, would as naturally bubble out of my heart, as water would bubble out of a fountain: I thought now, that every one had a better heart than I had; I could have changed heart with any body; I thought, none but but the Devil himself could equalize me for inward wickedness, and pollution of mind. I fell therefore at the sight of my own vileness, deeply into despair; for I concluded, that this condition that I was in, could not stand with a state of Grace. Sure, thought I, I am forsaken of God; sure I am given up to the Devil, and to a reprobate mind: and thus I continued a long while, even for some years together.

86. While I was thus afflicted with the fears of my own damnation, there were two things would make me wonder; the one was, when I saw old people hunting after the things of this life, as if they should live here always: The other was, when I found Professors much distressed, and cast down, when they met with outward losses; as of Husband, Wife, Child, &c. Lord! thought I, what a-do is here about such little things as these! What seeking after carnal things by some, and what grief in others for the loss of them! If they so much labour after, and spend so many tears for the things of this present life, how am I to be bemoaned, afflicted, and prayed for! My Soul is dying, my soul is damning. Were my Soul but in a good condition, and were I but sure of it; ah, how rich should I esteem my self, though blest but with Bread and Water! I should count those but small afflictions, and should bear them as little burthens. A wounded Spirit, who can bear?

87. And though I was thus troubled, and tossed, and afflicted with the sight, and sense, and terrour of my own wickedness, yet I was afraid to let this sense and sight go quite off my mind; for I found, that unless guilt of Conscience was taken off the right way, that is, by the Blood of Christ, a man grew rather worse for the loss of his trouble of mind, than better. Wherefore, if my guilt lay hard upon me, then I should cry that the Blood of Christ might take it off: And if it was going off without it (for the sense of sin would be sometimes as if it would die, and go quite away) then I would also strive to fetch it upon my heart again, by bringing the punishment for sin in Hell-fire upon my spirit; and should cry, Lord, let it not go off my heart, but the right way, but by the Blood of Christ, and by the application of thy mercy, through him, to my Soul; for that Scripture lay much upon me, Without shedding of blood, there is no remission, Heb. 9. 22. And that which made me the more afraid of this, was, because I had seen some, who, though when they were under wounds of Conscience, would cry and pray; yet seeking rather present ease from their trouble, than pardon for their sin, cared not how they lost their guilt, so they got it out of their mind: Now having got it off the wrong way, it was not sanctified unto them; but they grew harder, and blinder, and more wicked wicked after their trouble. This made me afraid, and made me cry to God the more, that it might not be so with me.

88. And now I was sorry that God had made me a man, for I feared I was a Reprobate: I counted Man, as unconverted, the most doleful of all the Creatures. Thus being afflicted and tossed about my sad condition, I counted my self alone, and above the most of men, unblest.

89. Yea I thought it impossible that ever I should attain to so much goodness of heart, as to thank God that he had made me a man. Man, indeed, is the most noble, by creation, of all creatures in the visible World; but by sin, he had made himself the most ignoble. The beasts, birds, fishes, &c. I blessed their condition; for they had not a sinful nature, they were not obnoxious to the wrath of God, they were not to go to Hell-fire after death; I could therefore have rejoiced, had my condition been as any of theirs.

90. In this condition I went a great while; but when comforting time was come, I heard one preach a Sermon upon these words in the Song, (Song 4. 1.) Behold, thou art fair, my Love; behold, thou art fair: But at that time he made these two words, My Love, his chief and subject-matter; from which, after he had a little opened the Text, he observed these several Conclusions: 1. That the Church, and so every saved Soul, is Christ's Love, when loveless. 2. Christ's Love without a cause. 3. Christ's Love, when hated of the World. 4. Christ's Love, when under temptation, and under desertion. 5. Christ's Love, from first to last.

91. But I got nothing by what he said at present; only when he came to the Application of the fourth Particular, this was the word he said; If it be so, that the saved Soul is Christ's Love, when under temptation and desertion; then, poor tempted Soul, when thou art assaulted and afflicted with temptations, and the hidings of God's Face, yet think on these two words, MY LOVE, still.

92. So as I was going home, these words came again into my thoughts; and I well remember, as they came in, I said thus in my heart, What shall I get by thinking on these two words? This thought had no sooner passed through my heart, but these words began thus to kindle in my spirit, Thou art my Love, thou art my Dove, twenty times together; and still as they ran thus in my mind, they waxed stronger and warmer, and began to make me look up; but being as yet between hope and fear, I still replied in my heart, But is it true? But is it true? At which, that sentence fell upon me, He wist not that It was true, which was done unto him of the Angel, Act. 12. 9.

93. Then

93. Then I began to give place to the Word, which, with power, did over and over make this joyful sound within my Soul, Thou art my Love, thou art my Love; and nothing shall separate thee from my Love: And with that, Rom. 8. 39 came into my mind. Now was my heart filled full of comfort and hope, and now I could believe that my sins should be forgiven me; yea, I was now so taken with the love and mercy of God that, I remember, I could not tell how to contain till I got home: I thought I could have spoken of his Love, and have told of his mercy to me, even to the very Crows that sate upon the plowed lands before me, had they been capable to have understood me: Wherefore I said in my soul, with much gladness, Well, I would I had a Pen and Ink here, I would write this down before I go any further; for surely, I will not forget this forty years hence: But, alas! within less than forty days, I began to question all again; and by times, fell to my old courses again; which made me begin to question all still.

94. Yet still at times, I was helped to believe, that it was a true manifestation of Grace unto my Soul, though I had lost much of the life and savour of it. Now, about a week or fortnight after this, I was much followed by this Scripture; Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, Luk. 22. 31. and sometimes it would sound so loud within me, yea, and, as it were, call so strongly after me, that once, above all the rest, I turned my head over my shoulder, thinking verily that some man had, behind me, called me; being at a great distance, me-thought, he called so loud: It came, as I have thought since, to have stirred me up to prayer, and to watchfulness: It came to acquaint me, that a cloud and storm was coming down upon me; but I understood it not.

95. Also, as I remember, that time that it called to me so loud, was the last time that it sounded in mine ears; but me-thinks I hear still with what a loud voice these words, Simon, Simon, sounded in my ears: I thought verily, as I have told you, that some body had called after me, that was half a mile behind me: And although that was not my name, yet it made me suddainly look behind me; believing that he that called so loud, meant me.

96. But so foolish was I, and ignorant, that I knew not the reason of this sound (which, as I did both see and feel soon after, was sent from Heaven, as an Alarm, to awaken me to provide for what was coming;) only I should muse, and wonder in my mind, to think what should be the reason that this Scripture, and that at this rate, so often, and so loud, should still be sounding and ratling in mine ears: But, as I said before, I soon after perceived the end of God therein.

97. For

97. For about the space of a month after, a very great storm came down upon me, which handled me twenty times worse than all I had met with before : it came stealing upon me, now by one piece, then by another ; first, all my comfort was taken from me, then darkness siezed upon me ; after which, whole floods of blasphemies, both against God, Christ and the Scriptures, was poured upon my spirit, to my great confusion and astonishment. These blasphemous thoughts were such as stirred up questions in me against the very Being of God, and of his only beloved Son : As, whether there were in truth, a God, or Christ ? And whether the holy Scriptures were not rather a fable, and cunning story, than the holy and pure Word of God ?

98. The Tempter also would much assault me with this : How can you tell but that the Turks had as good Scriptures to prove their Mahomet the Saviour, as we have to prove our Jesus is ? And could I think that so many ten thousands, in so many Countries and Kingdoms, should be without the knowledge of the right way to Heaven (if there were indeed an Heaven ; ) and that we only, who live in a corner of the Earth, should alone be blessed therewith ? Every one doth think his own Religion rightest ; both Jews, and Moors, and Pagans ; and how if all our Faith, and Christ, and Scriptures should be but a Think so too ?

99. Sometimes I have endeavoured to argue against these suggestions, and to set some of the Sentences of blessed Paul against them; but, alas! I quickly felt; when I thus did, such arguings as these would return again upon me; Though we made so great a matter of Paul, and of his words, yet how could I tell but that, in very deed, he being a subtile and cunning man, might give himself up to deceive with strong delusions; and also take the pains and travel, to undo and destroy his Fellows.

100. These suggestions (with many other, which at this time I may not, nor dare not utter, neither by word or pen) did make such a siezure upon my spirit, and did so overweigh my heart, both with their number, continuance, and fiery force, that I felt as if there were nothing else but these from morning to night within me, and as though indeed there could be room for nothing else; and also concluded, that God had, in very wrath to my Soul, given me up to them, to be carried away with them, as with a mighty whirl-wind.

101. Only by the distaste that they gave unto my spirit, I felt there was something in me that refused to embrace them. But this consideration I then only had, when God gave me leave to swallow my spittle; otherwise, the noise, and strength, and force of these temptations would drown and over-flow, and, as it it were, bury all such thoughts, or the remembrance of any such thing. While I was in this temptation, I should find often my mind suddenly put upon it, to curse and swear, or to speak some grievous thing of God, or Christ his Son, and of the Scriptures.

102. Now I thought, surely I am possessed of the Devil: At other times again, I thought I should be bereft of my wits; for instead of lauding and magnifying of God the Lord with others, if I have but heard him spoken of, presently some most horrible blasphemous thought or other would bolt out of my heart against him: So that whether I did think that God was, or again did think there were no such thing; no love, nor peace, nor gracious disposition could I feel within me.

103. These things did sink me into very deep despair; for I concluded, that such things could not possibly be found amongst them that loved God. I often, when these temptations have been with force upon me, did compare myself to the case of such a child, whom some Gypsie hath by force took up in her arms, and is carrying from friend and Country: Kick sometimes I did, and also shriek and cry; but yet I was as bound in the wings of the temptation, and the wind would carry me away. I thought also of Saul, and of the evil Spirit that did possess him; and did did greatly fear, that my condition was the same with that of his, 1 Sam. 16. 14.

104. In these days, when I have heard others talk of what was the sin against the Holy Ghost, then would the Tempter so provoke me to desire to sin that sin, that I was as if I could not, must not, neither should be quiet until I had committed it ; now no sin would serve but that : if it were to be committed by speaking of such a word, then I have been as if my mouth would have spoken that word, whether I would or no. And in so strong a measure was this temptation upon me, that often I have been ready to clap my hand under my chin, to hold my mouth from opening ; and to that end also I have had thoughts at other times, to leap with my head downward, into some Muck-hill-hole or other, to keep my mouth from speaking.

105. Now again I beheld the condition of the Dog and Toad, and counted the estate of every thing that God had made, far better than this dreadful state of mine, and such as my Companions was : Yea, gladly would I have been in the condition of Dog or Horse, for I knew they had no Soul to perish under the everlasting weight of Hell, or sin, as mine was like to do. Nay, and though I saw this, felt this, and was broken to pieces with it ; yet that which added to my sorrow, was, that I could

I could not find, that with all my Soul I did desire deliverance. That Scripture also did tear and rend my Soul, in the midst of these distractions, The wicked are like the troubled sea, which cannot rest; whose waters cast up mire and dirt: There is no peace to the wicked, saith my God, Isa. 57. 20, 21.

106. And now my heart was, at times, exceeding hard; if I would have given a thousand pound for a tear, I could not shed one; no, nor sometimes scarce desire to shed one. I was much dejected, to think that this would be my lot. I saw, some could mourn and lament their sin; and others, again, could rejoice, and bless God for Christ; and others, again, could quietly talk of, and with gladness remember the Word of God; while I only was in the storm, or tempest. This much sunk me, I thought my condition was alone, I should therefore much bewail my hard hap; but get out of, or get rid of these things, I could not.

107. While this temptation lasted, which was about a year, I could attend upon none of the Ordinances of God, but with sore and great affliction; yea, then was I most distressed with blasphemies: If I have been hearing the Word, then uncleanness, blasphemies and despair would hold me a Captive there; if I have been reading, then sometimes I had sudden thoughts to question all I read; sometimes did greatly fear, that my condition was the same with that of his, 1 Sam. 16. 14.

104. In these days, when I have heard others talk of what was the sin against the Holy Ghost, then would the Tempter so provoke me to desire to sin that sin, that I was as if I could not, must not, neither should be quiet until I had committed it ; now no sin would serve but that : if it were to be committed by speaking of such a word, then I have been as if my mouth would have spoken that word, whether I would or no. 107. While this temptation lasted, which was about a year, I could attend upon none of the Ordinances of God, but with sore and great affliction; yea, then was I most distressed with blasphemies: If I have been hearing the Word, then uncleanness, blasphemies and despair would hold me a Captive there; if I have been reading, then sometimes I had sudden thoughts to question all I read; sometimes times again, my mind would be so strangely snatched away, and possessed with other things, that I have neither known, nor regarded, nor remembered so much as the Sentence that but now I have read.

108. In prayer also I have been greatly troubled at this time; sometimes I have thought I have felt him, behind me, pull my cloaths: He would be also continually at me in time of prayer, to have done; break off, make haste, you have prayed enough, and stay no longer; still drawing my mind away. Sometimes also he would cast in such wicked thoughts as these; that I must pray to him, or for him: I have thought sometimes of that, Fall down, or If thou wilt fall down and worship me, Mat. 23. 9.

109. Also when because I have had wandering thoughts in the time of this duty, I have laboured to compose my mind, and fix it upon God; then with great force hath the Tempter laboured to distract me, and confound me, and to turn away my mind, by presenting to my heart and fancy, the form of a Bush, a Bull, a besom, or the like, as if I should pray to those: To these also he would (at some times especially) so hold my mind, that I was as if I could think of nothing else, or pray to nothing else but to these, or such as they.

110. Yet at times I should have some strong and heart-affecting apprehensions of God, and the reality of the truth of his Gospel: But, Oh! how would my heart, at such times, put forth it self with unexpressible groanings! My whole Soul was then in every word; I should cry with pangs after God, that he would be merciful unto me: But then I should be daunted again with such conceits as these; I should think that God did mock at these my prayers; saying, and that in the audience of the holy Angels, This poor simple wretch doth hanker after me, as if I had nothing to do with my mercy, but to bestow it on such as he. Alas, poor Soul! How art thou deceived! It is not for such as thee, to have favour with the Highest.

111. Then hath the Tempter come upon me also with such discouragements as these: You are very hot for mercy, but I will cool you; this frame shall not last always: Many have been as hot as you, for a spurt; but I have quenched their Zeal. (And with this, such and such, who were fallen off, would be set before mine eyes:) Then I should be afraid that I should do so too. But, thought I, I am glad this comes into my mind: Well, I will watch, and take what heed I can. Though you do, said Satan, I shall be too hard for you; I will cool you insensibly, by degrees, by little and little. What care I, saith he, though I be seven years in

chilling your heart, if I can do it at last? Continual rocking will lull a crying child asleep: I will ply it close, but I will have my end accomplished. Though you be burning hot at present, yet if I can pull you from this fire, I shall have you cold before it be long.

112. These things brought me into great straits; for as I at present could not find myself fit for present death, so I thought, to live long, would make me yet more unfit; for time would make me forget all, and wear even the remembrance of the evil of sin, the worth of Heaven, and the need I had of the blood of Christ to wash me, both out of mind and thought: But, I thank Christ Jesus, these things did not at present make me slack my crying, but rather did put me more upon it (like her who met with the Adulterer, Deut. 22. 26.) in which days, that was a good word to me, after I had suffered these things a while; I am perswaded, that neither height, nor depth, nor death, nor life, &c. shall separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus, Rom. 8. 38. And now I hoped, long life should not destroy me, nor make me miss of Heaven.

113. Yet I had some supports in this temptation, though they were then all questioned by me. That in Jer. 3. at the first, was something to me; and so was the consideration of ver. 5. of that Chapter; that though we have spoken and done as evil things as we could, yet we should cry unto God, My Father, thou art the Guide of my Youth; and should return unto him.

114. I had also once a sweet glance from that in 2 Cor. 5. 12. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. I remember that one day, as I was sitting in a Neighbour's house, and there very sad at the consideration of my many blasphemies; and as I was saying in my mind, What ground have I to think, that I, who have been so vile and abominable, should ever inherit eternal life? That word came suddainly upon me, What shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? Rom. 8. 31. That also was an help unto me, Because I live, you shall live also, Joh. 14. 19. But these words were but hints, touches, and short visits, though very sweet when present; only they lasted not; but, like to Peter's sheets, of a suddain were caught up from me, to Heaven again, Act. 10. 16.

115. But afterwards the Lord did more fully and graciously discover himself unto me; and indeed, did quite, not only deliver me from the guilt that, by these things, was laid upon my Conscience, but also from the very filth thereof; for the temptation was removed, and I was put into my right mind again, as other Christians were.

116. I remember that one day, as I was travelling into the Country, and musing on the wickedness and blasphemy of my heart, and considering of the enmity that was in me to God, that Scripture came in my mind, He hath made peace by the blood of his cross, Col. 1. 20. By which I was made to see, both again and again, that day, that God and my Soul were friends by this Blood; yea, I saw that the Justice of God, and my sinful Soul, could embrace and kiss each other through this Blood. This was a good day to me; I hope I shall not forget it.

117. At another time, as I was set by the fire, in my house, and musing on my wretchedness, the Lord made that also a precious word unto me; Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death, he might destroy him that had the power of death; that is, the Devil; and deliver those who, through the fear of death, were all their life subject to bondage, Heb. 2. 14, 15. I thought that the glory of those words was then so weighty on me, that I was both once and twice ready to swoon as I sate; yet not with grief and trouble, but with solid joy and peace.

118. At this time also I sate under the Ministry of holy Mr. Gifford, whose Doctrine, by God's Grace, was much for my stability. This man made it much his business to deliver the people of God from all those false and unsound tests, that by nature we are prone to. He would bid us take special heed, that we took not up any truth upon trust; as from this, or that, or any other man or men; but to cry mightily to God, that he would convince us of the reality thereof, and set us down therein by his own Spirit, in the holy Word: For, said he, if you do otherwise, when temptations come, if strongly, you not having received them with evidence from Heaven, will find, you want that help and strength, now to resist, that once you thought you had.

119. This was as seasonable to my Soul, as the former and latter Rain in their season; for I had found, and that by sad experience, the truth of these his words; (for I had felt, no man can say, especially when tempted of the Devil, that Jesus Christ is Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.) Wherefore I found my Soul, through Grace, very apt to drink in this Doctrine, and to incline to pray to God, that in nothing that pertained to God's Glory, and my own eternal happiness, he would suffer me to be without the confirmation thereof from Heaven; for now I saw clearly, there was an exceeding difference betwixt the notion of flesh and blood, and the Revelations of God in Heaven; also a great difference between that Faith that is feigned, feigned; and according to Man's wisdom, and of that which comes by a man's being born thereto of God, Mat. 16. 15. 1 Job. 5. 1.

120. But, Oh! now, how was my Soul led from truth to truth by God! Even from the Birth and Cradle of the Son of God, to his Ascension, and second coming from Heaven, to judge the World!

121. Truly, I then found, upon this account, the great God was very good unto me; for, to my remembrance, there was not any thing that then I cried to God, to make known, and reveal unto me, but he was pleased to do it for me: I mean, not one part of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus, but I was orderly led into it: Me thought I saw with great evidence, from the relation of the four Evangelists, the wonderful work of God, in giving Jesus Christ to save us, from his conception and Birth, even to his second coming to Judgment: Me thought I was as if I had seen him born, as if I had seen him grow up, as if I had seen him walk through this World, from the Cradle, to the Cross; to which also, when he came, I saw how gently he gave himself to be hanged, and nailed on it, for my sins, and wicked doings. Also as I was musing on this his progress, that dropped on my spirit, He was ordained for the slaughter, 1 Pet. 1. 12, 20.

122. When

122. When I have considered also the truth of his Resurrection, and have remembred that word, Touch me not, Mary, &c. I have seen, as if he had leaped out of the Grave's mouth, for joy that he was risen again, and had got the conquest over our dreadful foes, Joh. 20.

17. I have also, in the Spirit, seen him a Man on the Right-Hand of God the Father, for me ; and have seen the manner of his coming from Heaven, to judge the World with Glory, and have been confirmed in these things by these Scriptures following, Act. 1. 9, 10. & 7. 56. & 10. 42. Heb. 7. 24. & 8. 38. Rev. 1. 18. 1 Thes. 4. 17, 18.

123. Once I was troubled to know whether the Lord Jesus was Man as well as God, and God as well as Man ; and truly, in those days, let men say what they would, unless I had it with evidence from Heaven, all was nothing to me, I counted not my self set down in any truth of God. Well, I was much troubled about this Point, and could not tell how to be resolved ; at last, that in Rev. 5. came into my mind : And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb. In the midst of the Throne, thought I, there is his God-head ; in the midst of the Elders, there is his Manhood : But Oh ! me-thought this did glister ! It was a goodly touch, and gave me sweet satisfaction. That other Scripture also did help me much in this, To us a Child is born, to us a Son is given, and the Government shall be upon his shoulder, and his Name shall be called Wonderful Counsellor, the mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, &c. Isa. 9. 6.

124. Also besides these teachings of God, in his Word, the Lord made use of two things to confirm me in this truth; the one was, the Errors of the Quakers; and the other was, the Guilt of Sin; for as the Quakers did oppose this Truth, so God did the more confirm me in it, by leading me into the Scriptures that did wonderfully maintain it.

125. The Errors that this people then maintained were,

1. That the holy Scriptures were not the Word of God.

2. That every man in the World had the Spirit of Christ, Grace, Faith, &c.

3. That Christ Jesus, as crucified, and dying sixteen hundred years ago, did not satisfy Divine Justice for the sins of his people.

4. That Christ's Flesh and Blood was within the Saints.

5. That the Bodies of the Good and Bad that are buried in the Church-yard, shall not arise again.

6. That the Resurrection is past with good men already.

7. That

7. That that Man Jesus, that was crucified between two thieves, on Mount Calvary, in the Land of Canaan, by Jerusalem, was not ascended up above the starry Heavens.

8. That he should not, even the same Jesus that died by the hand of the Jews, come again at the last day ; and, as Man, judge all Nations, &c.

126. Many more vile and abominable things were in those days fomented by them, by which I was driven to a more narrow search of the Scripture, and was, through their light and testimony, not only enlightned, but greatly confirmed and comforted in the truth ; and, as I said, the guilt of sin did help me much ; for still as that would come upon me, the Blood of Christ did take it off again, and again, and again ; and that too sweetly, according to the Scriptures. O friends ! cry to God to reveal Jesus Christ unto you ; there is none teacheth like him.

127. It would be too long here to stay, to tell you in particular how God did set me down in all the things of Christ, and how he did, that he might so do, lead me into his words ; yea, and also how he did open them unto me, and make them shine before me, and cause them to dwell with me, talk with me, and comfort me over and over, both of his own Being, and the Being of his Son, and Spirit, and Word, and Gospel.

128. Only

128. Only this, as I said before, I will say unto you again, that in general, he was pleased to take this course with me : first to suffer me to be afflicted with temptation concerning them, and then reveal them to me : As sometimes I should lie under great guilt for sin, even crushed to the ground therewith ; and then the Lord would shew me the death of Christ ; yea, and so sprinkle my Conscience with his Blood, that I should find, and that before I was aware, that in that Conscience, where but just now did reign and rage the Law, even there would rest and abide the peace and love of God, through Christ.

129. Now I had an evidence, as I thought, of my Salvation from Heaven, with many golden Seals thereon, all hanging in my sight : Now could I remember this manifestation, and the other discovery of Grace, with comfort ; and should often long and desire that the last day were come, that I might be forever inflamed with the sight, and joy, and communion of him, whose head was crowned with thorns, whose Face was spit on, and Body broken, and Soul made an Offering for my sins : For whereas before I lay continually trembling at the mouth of Hell, now methought I was got so far there-from, that I could not, when I looked back, scarce discern it : And, Oh ! thought I, that I were four-score core years old now, that I might die quickly, that my Soul might be gone to rest.

130. But before I had got thus far out of these my temptations, I did greatly long to see some ancient godly man's experience, who had writ some hundreds of years before I was born; for, for those who had writ in our days, I thought (but I desire them now to pardon me) that they had writ only that which others felt; or else had, through the strength of thir Wits and Parts, studied to answer such Objections, as they perceived others were perplexed with, without going down themselves into the deep. Well, after many such longings in my mind, the God, in whose hand are all our days and ways, did cast into my hand (one day) a Book of Martin Luther; it was his Comment on the Galatians; it also was so old, that it was ready to fall piece from piece if I did but turn it over. Now I was pleased much, that such an old Book had fallen into my hand; the which, when I had but a little way perused, I found my condition, in his experience, so largely and profoundly handled, as if his Book had been written out of my heart. This made me marvel; for thus I thought I, This man could not know any thing of the state of Christians now, but must needs write and speak the experience of former days.

131. Besides, he doth most gravely also, in that Book. debate of the rise of these temptations; namely, Blasphemy, Desparation, and the like; shewing that the Law of Moses, as well as the Devil, Death and Hell, hath a very great hand therein: The which, at first, was very strange to me; but considering and watching, I found it so indeed. But of Particulars here, I intend nothing; only this methinks I must let fall before all men, I do prefer this Book of Martin Luther upon the Galatians (excepting the holy Bible) before all the Books that ever I have seen, as most fit for a wounded Conscience.

132. And now I found, as I thought, that I loved Christ dearly: Oh! me-thought my Soul cleaved unto him, my affections cleaved unto him: I felt love to him as hot as fire, and now, as Job said, I thought I should die in my nest; but I did quickly find, that my great love was but little; and that I, who had, as I thought, such burning love to Jesus Christ, could let him go again for a very trifles. God can tell how to abase us, and can hide pride from Man. Quickly after this, my love was tried to purpose.

133. For after the Lord had in this manner, thus graciously delivered me from this great and sore temptation, and had set me down so sweetly in the Faith of his holy Gospel, and had given me such strong consolation tion, and blessed evidence from Heaven, touching my interest in his love through Christ; the tempter came upon me again, and that with a more grievous and dreadful temptation than before.

134. And that was, to sell and part with this most blessed Christ, to exchange him for the things of this life, for any thing. The temptation lay upon me for the space of a year, and did follow me so continually, that I was not rid of it one day in a month; no, not sometimes one hour in many days together, unless when I was asleep.

135. And though in my judgment I was perswaded, that those who were once effectually in Christ (as I hoped, through his Grace, I had seen my self) could never lose him for ever; (For the land shall not be sold for ever, for the land is mine, saith God, Lev. 25. 23.) yet it was a continual vexation to me, to think that I should have so much as one such thought within me against a Christ, a Jesus, that had done for me as he had done; and yet then I had almost none others, but such blasphemous ones.

136. But it was neither my dislike of the thought, nor yet any desire and endeavour to resist it, that in the least did shake or abate the continuation, or force and strength thereof; for it did always, in almost whatever I thought, thought, inter-mix it self therewith, in such sort, that I could neither eat my food, stoop for a pin, chop a stick, or cast mine eye to look on this or that, but still the temptation would come, Sell Christ for this, or sell Christ for that ; sell him, sell him.

137. Sometimes it would run in my thoughts, not so little as an hundred times together ; Sell him, sell him, sell him : against which, I may say, for whole hours together, I have been forced to stand as continually leaning and forcing my spirit against it, lest haply, before I were aware, some wicked thought might arise in my heart, that might consent thereto ; and sometimes also the Tempter would make me believe I had consented to it, but then should I be as tortured upon a Rack for whole days together.

138. This temptation did put me to such scares, lest I should at some times, I say, consent thereto, and be overcome therewith, that by the very force of my mind, in labouring to gain-say and resist this wickedness, my very body would be put into action, or motion, by way of pushing or thrusting with my hands or elbows ; still answering, as fast as the destroyer said, sell him ; I will not, I will not, I will not, I will not ; no, not for thousands, thousands, thousands of Worlds : Thus reckoning, lest I should, in the midst of these assaults, set too low a value of him, even until I scarce well knew where I was, or how to be composed again.

139. At these seasons he would not let me eat my food at quiet ; but, forsooth, when I was set at the table, at my meat, I must go hence to pray ; I must leave my food now, just now ; so counterfeit holy also would this Devil be. When I was thus tempted, I should say in my self, Now I am at meat, let me make an end. No, said he, you must do it now, or you will displease God, and despise Christ. Wherefore I was much afflicted with these things ; and because of the sinfulness of my nature (imagining that these things were impulses from God) I should deny to do it, as if I denied God ; and then should I be as guilty because I did not obey a temptation of the Devil, as if I had broken the Law of God indeed.

140. But to be brief, one morning as I did lie in my bed, I was, as at other times, most fiercely assaulted with this temptation, to sell, and part with Christ ; the wicked suggestion still running in my mind, Sell him, sell him, sell him, sell him, sell him, as fast as a man could speak : Against which also, in my mind, as at other times, I answered, No, no, not for thousands thousands, thousands, at least twenty times together : But at last, after much striving, even until I was almost out of breath, I felt this thought pass through my heart, Let him go, if he will; and I thought also that I felt my heart freely consent thereto. Oh, the diligence of Satan! Oh, the desperateness of Man's heart!

141. Now was the battle won, and down fell I, as a Bird that is shot from the top of a tree, into great guilt, and fearful despair. Thus getting out of my bed, I went mopeing into the field; but, God knows, with as heavy an heart as mortal man, I think, could bear; where for the space of two hours, I was like a man bereft of life, and as now past all recovery, and bound over to eternal punishment.

142. And withal, that Scripture did sieze upon my Soul, Or prophane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat, sold his birth-right: for ye know, how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully, with tears, Heb. 12. 16, 17.

143. Now was I as one bound, I felt my self shut up unto the Judgment to come; nothing now, for two years together, would abide with me, but damnation, and an expectation of damnation: I say, nothing now would abide with me but this, save some few moments for relief, as in the sequel you will see.

144. These words were to my Soul, like fetters of Brais to my legs; in the continual sound of which, I went for several months together. But about ten or eleven a-clock on that day, as I was walking under an hedge (full of sorrow and guilt, God knows) and bemoaning my self for this hard hap, that such a thought should arise within me, suddainly this sentence bolted in on me, The blood of Christ remits all guilt. At this, I made a stand in my spirit: With that, this word took hold upon me, The blood of Jesus Christ his Son, cleanseth us from all sin, 1 Joh. 1. 7.

145. Now I began to conceive peace in my Soul, and me-thought I saw as if the Tempter did lear and steal away from me, as being ashamed of what he had done. At the same time also I had my sin and the Blood of Christ thus represented to me, that my sin, when compared to the Blood of Christ, was no more to it, than this little clot or stone before me, is to this vast and wide field that here I see. This gave me good encouragement for the space of two or three hours; in which time also, me-thought I saw, by faith, the Son of God, as suffering for my sins: But because it tarried not, I therefore sunk in my spirit, under exceeding guilt again.

146. But chiefly by the afore-mentioned Scripture, concerning Esau's selling of his Birth-right; for that Scripture would lie all day long. all the week long; yea, all the year long in my mind, and hold me down, so that I could by no means lift up my self; for when I would strive to turn me to this Scripture, or that, for relief, still that Sentence would be founding in me, For ye know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

147. Sometimes, indeed, I should have a touch from that in Luk. 22. 31. I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; but it would not abide upon me; neither could I indeed, when I considered my state, find ground to conceive in the least, that there should be the root of that Grace within me, having sinned as I had done. Now was I tore and rent in an heavy case, for many days together.

148. Then began I with sad and careful heart, to consider of the nature and largeness of my sin, and to search in the Word of God, if I could in any place espy a word of promise, or any encouraging sentence, by which I might take relief. Wherefore I began to consider that of Mar. 3. All manner of sins and blasphemies shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, where-with-soever they shall blaspheme. Which place, methought, at a blush, did contain a large and glorious Promise for the pardon of high offences; but considering the place more fully, I thought it was rather to be understood, as relating more chiefly to those who had, while in a natural estate, committed such things as there there are mentioned; but not to me, who had not only received light and mercy, but that had both after, and also contrary to that, so slighted Christ as I had done.

149. I feared therefore that this wicked sin of mine might be that sin unpardonable, of which he there thus speaketh. But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost, hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation, Mar. 3. And I did the rather give credit to this, because of that sentence in the Hebrews, For you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears. And this stuck always with me.

150. And now was I both a burthen and a terror to my self; nor did I ever so know, as now, what it was to be weary of my life, and yet afraid to die. Oh, how gladly now would I have been any body but my self! Any thing but a man! and in any condition but mine own! For there was nothing did pass more frequently over my mind, than that it was impossible for me to be forgiven my transgression, and to be saved from wrath to come.

151. And now began I to labour to call again time that was past; wishing a thousand times twice told, that the day was yet to come, when I should be tempted to such a sin; concluding with great indignation, both against my heart, and all assaults, how I would rather have been torn in pieces, than found a consenter thereto. But, alas! these thoughts, and wishings, and resolvings were now too late to help me; the thought had passed my heart, God hath let me go, and I am fallen. O! thought I, that it was with me as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me! Job 29. 2.

152. Then again, being loth and unwilling to perish, I began to compare my sin with others, to see if I could find that any of those that are saved, had done as I had done. So I considered David's Adultery and Murther, and found them most heinous crimes; and those too committed after Light and Grace received: But yet, by considering, I perceived that his transgressions were only such as were against the Law of Moses; from which the Lord Christ could, with the consent of his Word, deliver him: But mine was against Gospel; yea, against the Mediator thereof; I had sold my Saviour.

153. Now again should I be as if racked upon the wheel, when I considered that, besides the guilt that possessed me, I should be so void of Grace, so bewitched. What, thought I, must it be no sin but this? Must it needs be the great transgression? Psal. 19. 13. Must that wicked one touch my Soul? 1 Joh.

5. 18. Oh, what stings did I find in all these sentences!

154. What, thought I, is there but one sin that is unpardonable? But one sin that layeth the Soul without the reach of Gods Mercy? And must I be guilty of that? Must it needs be that? is there but one sin, amongst so many millions of sins, for which there is no forgiveness; and must I commit this? Oh, unhappy sin! Oh unhappy Man! These things would so break and confound my Spirit, that I could not tell what to do; I thought, at times, they would have broke my wits; and still, to aggravate my misery, that would run in my mind, You know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected. Oh! none knows the terrors of these days but my self.

155. After this, I came to consider of Peter's sin, which he committed in denying his Master: And, indeed, this came nighest to mine, of any that I could find; for he had denied his Saviour, as I, after light and mercy received; yea, and that too, after warning given him. I also considered, that he did it both once and twice; and that, after time to consider betwixt. But though I put all these circumstances together, that, if possible, I might find help, yet I considered again, that his was but a denial of his Master, but mine was a selling of my Saviour. Wherefore I thought thought with my self, that I came nearer to Judas, than either to David or Peter.

156. Here again my torment would flame out and afflict me; yea, it would grind me, as it were, to powder, to consider the preservation of God towards others, while I fell in to the snare; for in my thus considering of other men's sins, and comparing of them with mine own, I could evidently see, God preserved them, notwithstanding their wickedness, and would not let them, as he had let me, become a Son of Perdition.

157. But Oh, how did my Soul at this time prize the preservation that God did set about his people! Ah, how safely did I see them walk, whom God had hedged in! They were within his care, protection and special providence: Though they were full as bad as I, by nature; yet, because he loved them, he would not suffer them to fall without the range of mercy: But as for me, I was gone, I had done it; he would not preserve me, nor keep me; but suffered me, because I was a Reprobate, to fall as I had done. Now did those blessed places that speak of God's keeping his people, shine like the Sun before me, tho not to comfort my, yet to shew me the blessed state and heritage of those whom the Lord had blessed.

158. Now I saw, that as God had his hand in all providences and dispensations that overtook his Elect, so he had his hand in all the temptations that they had to sin against him; not to animate them unto wickedness, but to chuse their temptations and troubles for them; and also to leave them, for a time, to such sins only, as might not destroy, but humble them; as might not put them beyond, but lay them in the way of the renewing of his mercy. But Oh, what love, what care, what kindness and mercy did I now see, mixing it self with the most severe and dreadful of all God's ways to his people! He would let David, Hezekiah, Solomon, Peter, and others fall, but he would not let them fall into sin unpardonable, nor into Hell for sin. Oh! thought I, these be the men that God hath loved; these be the men that God, though he chastiseth them, keeps them in safety by him; and them whom he makes to abide under the shadow of the Almighty. But all these thoughts added sorrow, grief and horreur to me, as whatever I now thought on, it was killing to me. If I thought how God kept his own, that was killing to me; if I thought of how I was fallen my self, that was killing to me. As all things wrought together for the best, and to do good to them that were the called, according to his purpose; so I thought that all things wrought for my damage, and for my eternal overthrow.

thought with my self, that I came nearer to Judas, than either to David or Peter.

156. 158. Now I saw, that as God had his hand in all providences and dispensations that overtook took his Elect, so he had his hand in all the temptations that they had to sin against him; not to animate them unto wickedness, but to chuse their temptations and troubles for them; and also to leave them, for a time, to such sins only, as might not destroy, but humble them; as might not put them beyond, but lay them in the way of the renewing of his mercy. If I thought how God kept his own, that was killing to me; if I thought of how I was fallen my self, that was killing to me. As all things wrought together for the best, and to do good to them that were the called, according to his purpose; so I thought that all things wrought for my damage, and for my eternal overthrow.

159. Then again I began to compare my sin with the sin of Judas, that, if possible, I might find if mine differed from that which, in truth is unpardonable: And, Oh! thought I, if it should differ from it, though but the breadth of an hair, what an happy condition is my Soul in! And by considering, I found that Judas did his intentionally, but mine was against my prayer and strivings; besides, his was committed with much deliberation, but mine in a fearful hurry, on a suddain; all this while I was tossed to and fro, like the Locusts, and driven from trouble to sorrow; hearing always the sound of Eſau's fall in mine ears, and of the dreadful consequences thereof.

160. Yet this consideration about Judas his sin, was, for a while, some little relief unto me; for I saw I had not, as to the circumstances, transgressed so foully as he: But this was quickly gone again; for I thought with my self, there might be more ways than one to commit the unpardonable sin; also I thought that there might be degrees of that, as well as of other transgressions; wherefore, for ought I yet could perceive, this iniquity of mine might be such as might never be passed by.

161. I was often now ashamed that I should be like such an ugly man as Judas: I thought also how ashamed I should be unto all the Saints at the Day of Judgment: Inſomuch that now I could scarce see a good man, that I believed had a good Conscience, but I should feel my heart tremble at him, while I was in his presence. Oh ! now I saw a glory in walking with God, and what a mercy it was to have a good Conscience before him.

162. I was much about this time tempted to content my self, by receiving some false Opinion; as that there should be no such thing as a Day of Judgment, that we should not rise again, and that sin was no such grievous thing; the Tempter suggesting thus, For if these things should indeed be true, yet to believe otherwise, would yield you ease for the present. If you must perish, never torment your self so much beforehand; drive the thoughts of damning out of your mind, by possessing your mind with some such conclusions, that Atheists and Ranters use to help themselves withal.

163. But, Oh ! when such thoughts have led through my heart, how, as it were, within a step, hath Death and Judgment been in my view ! Me-thought the Judge stood at the door, I was as if it was come already ; so that such things could have no entertainment. But methinks I see by this, that Satan will use any means, to keep the Soul from Christ ; he loveth not an awakened frame of spirit ; security, blindness, darkness and error, is the very kingdom and habitation of the wicked One.

164. I found it hard work now to pray to God, because despair was swallowing me up; I thought I was, as with a tempest, driven away from God; for always when I cried to God for mercy, this would come in, 'Tis too late; I am lost, God hath let me fall; not to my correction, but condemnation: My sin is unpardonable; and I know, concerning Esau, how that after he had sold his Birth-right, he would have received the Blessing, but was rejected. About this time I did light on that dreadful story of that miserable mortal, Francis Spira: A book that was to my troubled spirit, as salt, when rubbed into a fresh wound; every sentence in that book, every grain of that man, with all the rest of his actions in his dolours, as his tears, his prayers, his gnashing of teeth, his wringing of hands, his twining, and twisting, and languishing, and pining away under that mighty hand of God that was upon him, was as knives and daggers in my Soul; especially, that sentence of his was frightful to me, Man knows the beginnings of sin, but who bounds the issues thereof? Then would the former sentence, as the conclusion of all, fall like an hot thunder-bolt again upon my Conscience; for you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

165. Then should I be struck into a very great trembling, inſomuch that at ſome times I could, for whole days together, feel my very body, as well as my mind, to ſhake and totter under the ſenſe of the dreadful judgment of God, that ſhould fall on thoſe that have ſinned that moſt fearful and unpardonable ſin. I felt alſo ſuch a clogging and heat at my ſtomach, by reaſon of this my terror, that I was, eſpecially at ſome times, as if my breast-bone would have ſplit aſunder; then I thought of that concerning Judas, who by his falling head long, burſt aſunder, and all his bowels gushed out, Act. 1.

166. I feared alſo that this was the mark that the Lord did ſet on Cain, even continual fear and trembling under the heavy load of guilt that he had charged on him for the blood of his brother Abel. Thus did I wind, and twine, and ſhrink under the burthen that was upon me; which burthen alſo did ſo oppreſs me, that I could neither ſtand, nor go, nor lie either at reſt or quiet.

167. Yet that ſaying would ſometimes come to mind, He hath received gifts for the rebellious, Pſal. 68. 18. The rebellious, thought I; Why, ſurely they are ſuch as once were under ſubjection to their Prince; even thoſe who, after they have ſworn ſubjection to his Government, have taken up Arms againſt him; and this, thought thought I, is my very condition; I once loved him, feared him, served him; but now I am a rebel, I have sold him, I have said, Let him go if he will; but yet he has gifts for rebels, and then why not for me?

168. This sometimes I thought on, and should labour to take hold thereof, that some, though small refreshment might have been conceived by me; but in this also I missed of my desire, I was driven with force beyond it, I was like a man going to execution, even by that place where he would fain creep in, and hide himself, but may not.

169. Again, after I had thus considered the sins of the Saints in particular, and found mine went beyond them, then I began to think thus with my self; Set case I should put all theirs together, and mine alone against them, might I not then find some encouragement? For if mine, though bigger than any one, yet should be but equal to all, then there is hopes; for that Blood that hath virtue enough in it to wash away all theirs, hath virtue enough in it to do away mine, though this one be full as big, if not bigger than all theirs. Here again, I should consider the sin of David, of Solomon, of Manasseh, of Peter, and the rest of the great offenders; and should also labour what I might, with fairness, to aggravate and heighten their sins by several circumstances.

170. I should think with my self, that David shed blood to cover his Adultery, and that by the Sword of the Children of Ammon; a work that could not be done, but by continuance, deliberate contrivance, which was a great aggravation to his sin. But then this would turn upon me; Ah! but these were but sins against the Law, from which there was a Jesus sent to save them; but yours is a sin against the Saviour, and who shall save you from that?

171. Then I thought on Solomon, and how he sinned in loving strange women, in falling away to their Idols, in building them Temples, in doing this after light, in his old age, after great mercy received: But the same Conclusion that cut me off in the former consideration, cut me off as to this; namely, that all those were but sins against the Law, for which God had provided a remedy; but I had sold my Saviour, and there now remained no more Sacrifice for sin.

172. I would then add to these men's sins, the sins of Manasseh; how that he built Altars for Idols in the House of the Lord; he also observed times, used enchantments, had to do with Wizzards, was a Wizzard, had his familiar Spirits, burnt his Children in the fire in Sacrifice to Devils, and made the Streets of Jerusalem run down with the blood of Innocents.

cents. These, thought I, are great sins; sins of a bloody colour; but yet it would turn again upon me, They are none of them of the nature of yours; you have parted with Jesus, you have sold your Saviour.

173. This one consideration would always kill my heart, My sin was point-blank against my Saviour; and that too, at that height, that I had in my heart said of him, Let him go if he will. Oh! my thoughts this sin was bigger than the sins of a Country, of a Kingdom, or of the whole World; no one pardonable, nor all of them together, was able to equal mine: mine out-went them every one.

174. Now I should feel my mind to flee from God, as from the face of a dreadful Judge; yet this was my torment, I could not escape his hand: (It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God, Heb. 10) But, blessed be his Grace, that Scripture, in these flying fits, would call, as running after me, I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions; and as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me, for I have redeemed thee, Isa. 44. 22. This, I say, would come in upon my mind, when I was fleeing from the face of God; for I did flee from his face, that is, my mind and spirit fled before him; by reason of his highness, I could not endure: Then would the text cry, Return unto me; it would cry aloud, with a very great voice, voice, Return unto me, for I have redeemed thee. Indeed, this would make me make a little stop, and as it were look over my shoulder, behind me, to see if I could discern that the God of Grace did follow me with a pardon in his hand; but I could no sooner do that, but all would be clouded and darkned again by that sentence, For you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears. Wherefore I could not return, but fled, though at some times it cried, Return, return, as if it did hollow after me: But I feared to close in therewith, lest it should not come from God; for that other, as I said, was still sounding in my Conscience, For you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected, &c.

175. Once, as I was walking to and fro in a good man's shop, bemoaning of my self in my sad and doleful state, afflicting my self with self-aborrence for this wicked and ungodly thought; lamenting also this hard hap of mine; for that I should commit so great a sin, greatly fearing I should not be pardoned; praying also in my heart, that if this sin of mine did differ from that against the Holy Ghost, the Lord would shew it me: And being now ready to sink with fear, suddainly there was as if there had rushed in at the window, the noise of wind upon me, but very pleasant, and as if I had heard a voice speaking, Didst ever refuse to be justified by the Blood of Christ? And withal, my whole life of profession past, was in a moment opened to me, wherein I was made to see, that designedly I had not: So my heart answered groaningly, No. Then fell with power that Word of God upon me, See that ye refuse not him that speaketh, Heb. 12. 25. This made a strange seizure upon my spirit, it brought light with it, and commanded a silence in my heart of all those tumultuous thoughts that before did use, like masterless hell-hounds, to roar and bellow, and make an hideous noise within me. It shewed me also, that Jesus Christ had yet a word of Grace and Mercy for me, that he had not, as I had feared, quite forsaken and cast off my Soul; yea, this was a kind of a chide for my proneness to desperation; a kind of threatening of me, if I did not, notwithstanding my sins, and the heinousness of them, venture my Salvation upon the Son of God. But as to my determining about this strange dispensation, what it was, I know not; or from whence it came, I know not; I have not yet, in twenty years time, been able to make a judgment of it: I thought then what here I should be loth to speak. But verily, that suddain rushing wind was as if an Angel had come upon me, but both both it and the Salutation I will leave until the Day of Judgment; only this I say, It commanded a great calm in my Soul, it perswaded me there might be hope; it shewed me, as I thought, what the sin unpardonable was, and that my Soul had yet the blessed privilege to flee to Jesus Christ for mercy. But I say, concerning this dispensation, I know not what yet to say unto it; which was also, in truth, the cause that at first I did not speak of it in the Book: I do now also leave it to be thought on by men of sound Judgment. I lay not the stress of my Salvation thereupon, but upon the Lord Jesus, In the Promise; yet seeing I am here unfolding of my secret things, I thought it might not be altogether in-expedient to let this also shew it self, though I cannot now relate the matter as there I did experience it. This lasted in the favour of it, for about three or four days, and then I began to mistrust, and to despair again.

176. Wherefore still my life hung in doubt before me, not knowing which way I should tip; only this I found my Soul desire, even to cast it self at the foot of Grace by prayer and supplication. But, Oh! 'twas hard for me now to bear the face to pray to this Christ for mercy, against whom I had thus most vilely sinned: 'Twas hard work, I say, to offer to look him in the face, against whom I had so vilely sinned; sinned ; and indeed, I have found it as difficult to come to God by prayer, after backsliding from him, as to do any other thing. Oh, the shame that did now attend me ! especially when I thought, I am now a going to pray to him for mercy, that I had so lightly esteemed but a while before ! I was ashamed ; yea, even confounded, because this villainy had been committed by me ; but I saw that there was but one way with me, I must go to him, and humble my self unto him, and beg that he, of his wonderful mercy, would shew pity to me, and have mercy upon my wretched sinful Soul.

177. Which when the Tempter perceived, he strongly suggested to me, That I ought not to pray to God, for prayer was not for any in my case, neither could it do me good, because I had rejected the Mediator, by whom all prayers came with acceptance to God the Father ; and without whom, no prayer could come into his presence: Wherefore now to pray, is but to add sin to sin ; yea, now to pray, seeing God hath cast you off, is the next way to anger and offend him more than you ever did before.

178. For God (saith he) hath been weary of you for these several years already, because you are none of his ; your bawlings in his ears hath been no pleasant voice to him, and therefore he left you for this sin, that you might be quite cut off, and will you pray still ? This the Devil urged, and set forth that in Numbers, when Moses said to the Children of Israel, That because they would not go up to possess the land, when God would have them, therefore for ever after he did bar them out from thence, though they prayed they might with tears, Numb. 14. 36, 37, &c.

179. As 'tis said in another place, Exod. 21. 14 The man that sins presumptuously shall be taken from God's Altar, that he may die: Even as Joab was by King Solomon, when he thought to find shelter there, 1 King. 2. 27, 28, &c. These places did pinch me very sore; yet my case being desperate, I thought with my self, I can but die; and if it must be so, it shall once be said, That such an one died at the foot of Christ in prayer. This I did, but with great difficulty, God doth know; and that because, together with this, still that saying about Esau would be set at my heart, even like a flaming Sword, to keep the way of the Tree of Life, lest I should take thereof, and live. Oh! Who knows how hard a thing I found it, to come to God in prayer?

180. I did also desire the prayers of the people of God for me, but I feared that God would give them no heart to do it; yea, I trembled in my soul to think, that some or other of them would shortly tell me, that God had said those words to them, that he once did say to the Prophet, concerning the Children of Israel, Pray not for this people, for I have rejected them, Jer. 11. 14. So, Pray not for him, for I have rejected him. Yea, I thought that he had whispered this to some of them already, only they durst not tell me so; neither durst I ask them of it, for fear, if it should be so, it would make me quite besides my self: Man knows the beginning of sin (said Spira) but who bounds the issues thereof?

181. About this time I took an opportunity to break my mind to an ancient Christian, and told him all my case: I told him also, that I was afraid that I had sinned the sin against the Holy Ghost; and he told me, He thought so too. Here therefore I had but cold comfort; but talking a little more with him, I found him, though a good man, a stranger to much combat with the Devil. Wherefore I went to God again, as well as I could, for mercy still.

182. Now also did the Tempter begin to mock me in my misery, saying, That seeing I had thus parted with the Lord Jesus, and provoked him to displeasure, who would have stood between my Soul, and the flame of devouring fire, there was now but one way; and that was, To pray that God the Father would be the Mediator betwixt his Son and me, that we might be reconciled again, and that I might have that blessed benefit in him, that his blessed Saints enjoyed.

183. Then

183. Then did that Scripture sieze upon my Soul, He is of one mind, and who can turn him? Oh! I saw 'twas as easie to perswade him to make a new World, a new Covenant, or new Bible, besides that we have already, as to pray for such a thing. This was to perswade him, that what he had done already, was meer folly, and to perswade with him to alter; yea, to disannul the whole way of Salvation: And then would that saying rent my Soul asunder, Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven, given amongst men, whereby we must be saved. Act. 4. 12.

184. Now the most free, and full, and gracious words of the Gospel were the greatest torment to me; yea, nothing so afflicted me, as the thoughts of Jesus Christ, the remembrance of a Saviour; because I had cast him off, brought forth the villany of my sin, and my loss by it, to mind; nothing did twinge my Conscience like this: Every time that I thought of the Lord Jesus, of his Grace, Love, Goodness, Kindness, Gentleness, Meekness, Death, Blood, Promises, and blessed Exhortations, Comforts and Consolations, it went to my Soul like a Sword; for still, on to these my considerations of the Lord Jesus, these thoughts would make place for themselves in my heart: Ay, this is the Jesus, the loving Saviour, the Son of God, whom you have parted with, whom you have slighted, despised and abused. This is the only Saviour, the only Redeemer, the only one that could so love sinners, as to wash them from their sins in his own most precious Blood: But you have no part nor lot in this Jesus. you have put him from you, you have said in your heart, Let him go if he will. Now therefore, you are severed from him; you have sexered your self from him: Behold then his Goodness, but your self to be no partaker of it. Oh, thought I, what have I lost! What have I parted with! What have dis-inherited my poor Soul of! Oh! 'tis sad to be destroyed by the Grace and Mercy of God; to have the Lamb, the Saviour, turn Lion and Destroyer, Rev. 6. I also trembled, as I have said, at the sight of the Saints of God; especially at those that greatly loved him, and that made it their business to walk continually with him in this World; for they did, both in their words, their carriages, and all their expressions of tenderness and fear to sin against their precious Saviour, condemn, lay guilt upon, and also add continual affliction and shame unto my Soul: The dread of them was upon me, and I trembled at God's Samuels, 1 Sam. 16. 4.

185. Now also the Tempter began a fresh to mock my Soul another way, saying. That Christ, indeed, did pity my case, and was sorry for my loss; but forasmuch as I had sinned, and transgressed transgressed, as I had done, he could by no means help me, nor save me from what I feared; for my sin was not of the nature of theirs, for whom he bled and died; neither was it counted with those that were laid to his charge, when he hanged on the Tree: Therefore, unless he should come down from Heaven, and die a-new for this sin, though indeed he did greatly pity me, yet I could have no benefit of him. These things may seem ridiculous to others, even as ridiculous as they were in themselves, but to me they were most tormenting cogitations; every of them augmented my misery, that Jesus Christ should have so much love as to pity me, when yet he could not help me; nor did I think that the reason why he could not help me, was, because his Merits were weak, or his Grace and Salvation spent on others already, but because his faithfulness to his threatening would not let him extend his mercy to me. Besides, I thought, as I have already hinted, that my sin was not within the bounds of that pardon, that was wrapped up in a promise; and if not, then I knew assuredly, that it was more easie for Heaven and Earth to pass away, than for me to have Eternal Life. So that the ground of all these fears of mine did arise from a stedfast belief that I had of the stability of the holy Word of God, and also from my being misinformed of the nature of my sin.

186. But, Oh, how this would add to my affliction, to conceit that I should be guilty of such a sin, for which he did not die. These thoughts would so confound me, and imprison me, and tie me up from faith, that I knew not what to do: But, Oh, thought I, that he would come down again! Oh, that the work of Man's Redemption was yet to be done by Christ! How would I pray him, and intreat him to count and reckon this sin amongst the rest for which he died? But this Scripture would strike me down, as dead; Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him, Rom. 6. 9.

187. Thus, by the strange and unusual assaults of the Tempter, was my Soul like a broken Vessel, driven as with the Winds, and tossed sometimes head-long into despair; sometimes upon the Covenant of Works, and sometimes to wish that the new Covenant, and the conditions thereof, might, so far forth as I thought my self concerned, be turned another way, and changed. But in all these, I was but as those that jostle against the Rack; more broken, scattered and rent. Oh, the unthought of imaginations, frights, fears and terrors, that are affected by a thorough application of guilt, yielding to desperation! This is the man that hath his dwelling among the tombs, with the dead; that is always crying out, and cutting himself with stones, stones, Mar. 5. 1, 2, 3. But, I say, all in vain; Desperation will not comfort him, the old Covenant will not save him: Nay, Heaven and Earth shall pass away, before one jot or tittle of the Word and Law of Grace shall fail, or be removed. This I saw, this I felt, and under this I groaned; yet this advantage I got thereby, namely, a further confirmation of the certainty of the way of Salvation, and that the Scriptures were the Word of God. Oh! I cannot now express what then I saw and felt of the steadiness of Jesus Christ, the Rock of Man's Salvation: What was done, could not be undone, added to, nor altered. I saw, indeed, that sin might drive the Soul beyond Christ, even the sin which is unpardonable; but woe to him that was so driven, for the Word would shut him out.

188. Thus was I always sinking, whatever I did think, or do. So one day I walked to a neighbouring Town, and sat down upon a Settle in the Street, and fell into a very deep pause about the most fearful state my sin had brought me to; and after long musing, I lifted up my head, but me-thought I saw, as if the Sun that shineth in the Heavens did grudge to give light; and as if the very stones in the Street, and tiles upon the houses, did bend themselves against me; me-thought that they all combined together, to banish me out of the World; I was abhorred of them, and unfit to dwell among them, or be partaker of their benefits, because I had sinned against the Saviour. Oh, how happy now was every creature, over I was! For they stood fast, and kept their station, but I was gone and lost.

189. Then breaking out in the bitterness of my Soul, I said to my self, with a grievous sigh, How can God comfort such a wretch as I? I had no sooner said it, but this returned upon me, as an echo doth answer a voice, This sin is not unto death. At which I was as if I had been raised out of a Grave, and cried out again, Lord, how couldst thou find out such a word as this? For I was filled with admiration at the fitness, and also at the unexpectedness of the sentence. The fitness of the word, the rightness of the timing of it, the power, and sweetness, and light, and glory that came with it also, was marvellous to me to find. I was now, for the time, out of doubt, as to that about which I so much was in doubt before: My fears before were, that my sin was not pardonable, and so that I had no right to pray, to repent, &c. or that if I did, it would be of no advantage, or profit to me. But now, thought I, if this sin is not unto death, then it is pardonable; therefore from this I have encouragement to come to God by Christ for mercy; to consider the promise of forgiveness, as that which stands with open arms to receive me, as well as others. This therefore was a great easement to my mind; to wit, that my sin was pardonable, that it was not the sin unto death, (1 Joh. 5. 16, 17.) None but those that know what my trouble (by their own experience) was, can tell what relief came to my Soul by this consideration: It was a release to me from my former bonds, and a shelter from the former storm: I seemed now to stand upon the same ground with other sinners, and to have as good right to the Word and Prayer as any of they.

190. Now, I say, I was in hopes that my sin was not unpardonable, but that there might be hopes for me to obtain forgiveness. But, Oh, how Satan now did lay about him, for to bring me down again! But he could by no means do it, neither this day, nor the most part of the next; for this good sentence stood like a mill-post at my back: Yet towards the evening of the next day, I felt this word begin to leave me, and to withdraw its supportation from me; and so I returned to my old fears again, but with a great deal of grudging and peevishness, for I feared the sorrow of despair; nor could my faith now longer retain this word

191. But the next day at evening, being under many fears, I went to seek the Lord, and as I prayed, I cried, and my Soul cried to him in these words, with strong cries ; O Lord, I beseech thee, shew me, that thou hast loved me with an everlasting love, Jer. 31. 3. I had no sooner said it, but with sweetness this returned upon me, as an echo, or sounding again, I have loved thee with an everlasting love. Now I went to bed in quiet ; also when I awaked the next morning, it was fresh upon my Soul ; and I believed it.

192. But yet the Tempter left me not, for it could not be so little as an hundred times, that he, that day, did labour to break my peace. Oh, the combats and conflicts that I did then meet with, as I strove to hold by this word ! That of Esau would fly in my face like Lightning : I should be sometimes up and down twenty times in an hour ; yet God did bear me up, and keep my heart upon this word ; from which I had also, for several days together, very much sweetness, and comfortable hopes of pardon : For thus it was made out unto me, I loved thee whilst thou wast committing this sin, I loved thee before, I love thee still, and I will love thee for ever.

193. Yet I saw my sin most barbarous, and a filthy crime, and could not but conclude, and that with great shame and astonishment, that I had horridly abused the holy Son of God ; wherefore I felt my soul greatly to love and pity him, and my bowels to yearn towards him ;

him ; for I saw he was still my friend, and did reward me good for evil ; yea, the love and affection that then did burn within, to my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, did work, at this time, such a strong and hot desire of revenge upon my self, for the abuse I had done unto him, that, to speak as I then thought, had I had a thousand gallons of blood within my veins, I could freely then have spilt it all at the command and feet of this my Lord and Saviour.

194. And as I was thus in musing, and in my studies, considering how to love the Lord, and to express my love to him, that laying came in upon me, If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquity, O Lord, who should stand ? but there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared, Psal. 130. 4. These were good words to me, especially the latter part thereof ; to wit, that there is forgiveness with the Lord, that he might be feared ; that is, as then I understood it, that he might be loved, and had in reverence ; for it was thus made out to me, That the great God did set so high an esteem upon the love of his poor Creatures, that rather than he would go without their love, he would pardon their transgressions.

195. And now was that word fulfilled on me, and I was also refreshed by it ; Then shall they be ashamed and confounded, and never open their their mouth any more because of their shame, when I was pacified towards them for all that they have done, saith the Lord God, Ezek. 16. 36. Thus was my Soul at this time (and, as I then did think, for ever) set at liberty from being afflicted with my former guilt and amazement.

196. But before many weeks were over, I began to despond again, fearing lest, notwithstanding all that I had enjoyed, yet I might be deceived, and destroyed at the last; for this consideration came strong into my mind, That whatever comfort and peace I thought I might have from the word of the promise of Life, yet unless there could be found in my refreshment a concurrence and agreement in the Scriptures, let me think what I will thereof, and hold it never so fast, I should find no such thing at the end; for the Scriptures cannot be broken, Joh. 10. 35.

197. Now began my heart again to ache, and fear I might meet with disappointment at the last. Wherefore I began with all seriousness to examine my former comfort, and to consider whether one that had sinned as I had done, might with confidence trust upon the faithfulness of God, laid down in those words by which I had been comforted, and on which I had leaned my self: But now were brought those sayings to my mind, For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly Gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World to come, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto Repentance, Heb. 6. For if we sin wilfully, after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sin, but a certain fearful looking for of Judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries, Heb. 10. Even as Esau, who for one morsel of meat, sold his Birth-right : For you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected ; for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears, Heb. 12.

198. Now was the Word of the Gospel forced from my Soul ; so that no promise or encouragement was to be found in the Bible for me : And now would that saying work upon my spirit, to afflict me, Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people, Hos. 9. 1. For I saw indeed, there was cause of rejoicing for those that held to Jesus ; but as for me, I had cut my self off by my transgressions, and left my self neither foot-hold, nor hand-hold, amongst all the stays and props in the precious Word of Life.

199. And truly, I did now feel my self to sink into a gulf, as an house whose foundation is destroyed. I did liken my self, in this condition, unto the case of some child that was fallen into a Mill-pit; who, though it could make some shift to scrabble and sprawl in the water, yet because it could find neither hold for hand nor foot, therefore at last it must die in that condition. So soon as this fresh assault had fastned on my Soul, that Scripture came into my heart, This for many days, Dan. 10. 14. And, indeed, I found it was so; for I could not be delivered, nor brought to peace again, until well-nigh two years and an half were compleatly finished. Wherefore these words, though in themselves, they tended to discouragement, yet to me, who feared this condition would be eternal, they were at some times as an help and refreshment to me.

200. For, thought I; many days are not for ever, many days will have an end; therefore seeing I was to be afflicted, not a few, but many days, yet I was glad it was but for many days. Thus I say, I could re-call my self sometimes, and give my self an help; for as soon as ever the words came into my mind, at first, I knew my trouble would be long; yet this would be but sometimes, for I could not always think on this, nor ever be helped by it, though I did.

201. Now while these Scriptures lay before me, and laid sin anew at my door, that saying in Luk. 18. 1. with others, did encourage me to prayer: Then the Tempter again laid at me very sore; suggesting, That neither the Mercy of God, nor yet the Blood of Christ, did at all concern me, nor could they help me for my sin; therefore it was but in vain to pray. Yet, thought I, I will pray: But, said the Tempter, your sin is unpardonable. Well, said I, I will pray. 'Tis to no boot, said he. Yet, said I, I will pray. So I went to prayer to God; and while I was at prayer, I uttered words to this effect, Lord, Satan tells me, that neither thy Mercy, nor Christ's Blood is sufficient to save my Soul: Lord, shall I honour thee most, by believing thou wilt and canst; or him, by believing thou neither wilt nor canst? Lord, I would fain honour thee, by believing thou wilt and canst.
Mercy

202. And as I was thus before the Lord, that Scripture fastned on my heart, [O man, great is thy faith,] Mat. 15. 28. even as it one had clapped me on the back, as I was on my knees before God: Yet I was not able to believe this, that this was a prayer of faith, till almost six months after; for I could not think that I had faith, or that there should be a word for me to act faith on; therefore I should still be, as sticking in the jaws of desperation, and went mourning up and down, in a sad condition,

203. There was nothing now that I longed for more, than to be put out of doubt, as to this thing in question, and as I was vehemently desiring to know if there was indeed hopes for me, these words came rolling into my mind, mind; Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more? Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for ever more? Hath God so gotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Psal. 77. 7, 8, 9. And all the while they run in my mind, me-thought, I had this still as the answer, 'Tis a question whether he hath, or no; it may be, he hath not. Yea, the interrogatory seemed to me, to carry in it a sure affirmation that indeed he had not, nor would so cast off, but would be favourable; that his promise doth not fail, and that he had not forgotten to be gracious, nor would in anger shut up tender mercy: Something also there was upon my heart at the same time, which I cannot now call to mind; which, with this Text, did sweeten my heart, and make me conclude, that his mercy might not be quite gone, nor clean gone for ever.

204. At another time, I remembred, I was again much under this Question, Whether the Blood of Christ was sufficient to save my Soul? In which doubt I continued, from morning, till about seven or eight at night; and at last, when I was, as it were, quite worn out with fear. lest it should not lay hold on me, these words did sound suddenly within my heart, He is able: But me-thought, this word Able, was spoke loud unto me; it shewed a great word, it seemed to be writ in great letters, and and gave such a jumble to my fear and doubt (I mean, for the time it tarried with me, which was about a day) as I never had from that, all my life, either before or after, Heb. 7. 25.

205. But one morning, when I was again at prayer, and trembling under the fear of this, That no Word of God could help me, that piece of a sentence darted in upon me, My Grace is sufficient. At this, me-thought, I felt some stay, as if there might be hopes. But, oh, how good a thing it is, for God to send his Word! for, about a fortnight before, I was looking on this very place, and then I thought it could not come near my Soul with comfort, therefore I threw down my Book in a pet: Then I thought it was not large enough for me; no, not large enough; but now it was as if it had Arms of Grace so wide, that it could not only inclose me, but many more such as I besides.

206. By these words I was sustained, yet not without exceeding conflicts, for the space of seven or eight weeks; for my peace would be in it, and out, sometimes twenty times a day; comfort now, and trouble presently; peace now, and before I could go a furlong, as full of fear and guilt as ever heart could hold: And this was not only now and then, but my whole seven weeks experience; for this about the sufficiency of Grace, and that of Esau's parting ting with his Birth-right, would be like a pair of Scales within my mind ; sometimes one end would be uppermost, and sometimes again the other ; according to which, would be my peace or trouble.

207. Therefore I still did pray to God, that he would come in with this Scripture more fully on my heart ; to wit, that he would help me to apply the whole sentence, for as yet I could not : That he gave, that I gathered ; but further I could not go, for as yet it only helped me to hope there might be mercy for me ; My Grace is sufficient : And though it came no further, it answered my former question ; to wit, that there was hope ; yet, because for thee, was left out, I was not contented, but prayed to God for that also. Wherefore, one day, as I was in a Meeting of God's People, full of sadness and terrour, for my fears again were strong upon me ; and, as I was now thinking, my Soul was never the better, but my case most sad and fearful, these words did with great power suddainly break in upon me ; My Grace is sufficient for thee, my Grace is sufficient for thee, my Grace is sufficient for thee, three times together : And, Oh ! me-thought that every word was a mighty word unto me ; as my, and Grace, and sufficient, and for thee ; they were then, and sometimes are still far bigger than others be.

208. At which time my understanding was so enlightned, that I was as though I had seen the Lord Jesus look down from Heaven, through the Tiles, upon me, and direct these words unto me. This sent me mourning home, it broke my heart, and filled me full of joy, and laid me low as the dust; only it stayed not long with me, I mean, in this glory, and refreshing comfort; yet it continued with me for several weeks, and did encourage me to hope: But so soon as that powerful operation of it was taken off my heart, that other, about Eſau, returned upon me as before; so my Soul did hang as in a pair of Scales again; sometimes up, and sometimes down; now in peace, and anon again in terrour.

209. Thus I went on for many weeks, sometimes comforted, and sometimes tormented; and especially at some times my torment would be very sore, for all those Scriptures fore-named, in the Hebrews, would be set before me, as the only Sentences that would keep me out of Heaven. Then again I should begin to repent that ever that thought went thorough me; I should also think thus with my self, Why, how many Scriptures are there against me? There are but three or four: And cannot God miss them, and save me for all them? Sometimes again I should think, Oh, if it were not for these three or four words, now how

ting with his Birth right, would be like a pair of Scales within my mind ; sometimes one end would be uppermost, and sometimes again the other ; according to which, would be my peace or trouble.

207. Therefore I still did pray to God, that he would come in with this Scripture more fully on my heart ; to wit, that he would help me to apply the whole sentence, for as yet I could not : That he gave, that I gathered ; but further I could not go, for as yet it only helped me to hope there might be mercy for me ; My Grace is sufficient : And though it came no further, it answered my former question ; to wit, that there was hope ; yet, because for thee, was left out, I was not contented, but prayed to God for that also. 208. At which time my understanding was so enlightned, that I was as though I had seen the Lord Jesus look down from Heaven, through the Tiles, upon me, and direct these words unto me. This sent me mourning home, it broke my heart, and filled me full of joy, and laid me low as the dust; only it stayed not long with me, I mean, in this glory, and refreshing comfort; yet it continued with me for several weeks, and did encourage me to hope: But so soon as that powerful operation of it was taken off my heart, that other, about Esaie, returned upon me as before; so my Soul did hang as in a pair of Scales again; sometimes up, and sometimes down; now in peace, and anon again in terrour.

209. Thus I went on for many weeks, sometimes comforted, and sometimes tormented; and especially at some times my torment would be very sore, for all those Scriptures fore-named, in the Hebrews, would be set before me, as the only Sentences that would keep me out of Heaven. Then again I should begin to repent that ever that thought went thorough me; I should also think thus with my self, Why, how many Scriptures are there against me? There are but three or four: And cannot God miss them, and save me for all them? Sometimes again I should think, Oh, if it were not for these three or four words, now how might I be comforted! And I could hardly forbear, at some times, but to wish them out of the Book.

210. Then me-thought I should see as if both Peter, and Paul, and John, and all the Writers, did look with scorn upon me, and hold me in derision; and as if they said unto me, All our words are truth, one of as much force as another: It is not we that have cut you off, but you have cast away your self: There is none of our sentences that you must take hold upon, but these, and such as these: It is impossible; there remains no more sacrifice for sin, Heb. 6. And it had been better for them, not to have known the Will of God, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them, Heb. 10. For the Scriptures cannot be broken, 2 Pet. 2. 21.

211. These, as the Elders of the City of Refuge, I saw, were to be the Judges both of my case and me, while I stood, with the Avenger of blood at my heels, trembling at their Gate for deliverance; also with a thousand fears and mistrusts, I doubted that they would shut me out for ever, Josh. 20. 3, 4.

212. Thus I was confounded, not knowing what to do, nor how to be satisfied in this question, Whether the Scriptures could agree in the salvation of my Soul? I quaked at the Apostles; I knew their words were true, and that they must stand for ever.

213. And

213. And I remember, one day, as I was in divers frames of spirit, and considering that these frames were still according to the nature of the several Scriptures that came in upon my mind; if this of Grace, then I was quiet; but if that of Eſau, then tormented. Lord, thought I, if both these Scriptures would meet in my heart at once, I wonder which of them would get the better of me. So me-thought I had a longing mind that they might come both together upon me; yea, I desired of God they might.

214. Well, about two or three days after, so they did indeed; they bolted both upon me at a time, and did work and struggle strangely in me for a while; at last, that about Eſau's Birth-right began to wax weak, and withdraw, and vanish; and this about the sufficiency of Grace prevailed, with peace and joy. And as I was in a muse about this thing, that Scripture came home upon me Mercy rejoiceth against judgment, Jam. 2. 13.

215. This was a wonderment to me, yet truly, I am apt to think it was of God; for the word of the Law, and wrath, must give place to the word of Life and Grace; because, though the word of Condemnation be glorious, yet the word of Life and Salvation doth far exceed in glory, 2 Cor. 3. 8, 9, 10, 11. Mar. 9. 5, 6, 7. Job. 6. 37. Also that Moses and Elias must both vanish, and leave Christ and his Saints alone.

216. This

216. This Scripture also did now most sweetly visit my Soul; And him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out. Oh, the comfort that I had from this word, in no wise! As who should say, by no means, for nothing, whatever he hath done. But Satan would greatly labour to pull this promise from me, telling of me, That Christ did not mean me, and such as I; but sinners of a lower rank, that had not done as I had done. But I should answer him again, Satan, here is in these words no such exception; but, him that comes, him, any him: Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out. And this I well remember still, that of all the flights that Satan used, to take this Scripture from me, yet he never did so much as put this Question, But do you come aright? And I have thought, the reason was, because he thought I knew full well what coming a-right was; for I saw that to come a-right, was to come as I was, vile and ungodly sinner, and to cast my self at the feet of Mercy, condemning my self for sin. If ever Satan and I did strive for any word of God in all my life, it was for this good word of Christ; he at one end, and I at the other: Oh, what work did we make! It was for this in John, I say, that we did so tug and strive: He pulled, and I pulled; but, God be praised, I got the better of him, I got some sweetness from it.

217. But,

217. But, notwithstanding all these helps, and blessed words of Grace; yet that of Eſau's ſelling of his Birth-right, would ſtill at times diſtreſs my Conſcience; for though I had been moſt ſweetly comforted, and that but juſt before, yet when that came into my mind, 'twould make me fear again, I could not be quite rid thereof, 'twould every day be with me: wherefore now I went another way to work, even to conſider the nature of this blaſphemous thought; I mean, if I ſhould take the words at the largeſt, and give them their own natural force and ſcope, even every word therein. So when I had thus conſidered, I found that if they were fairly taken, they would amount to this, That I had freely left the Lord Jeſus Chriſt to his choice, whether he would be my Saviour, or no; for the wicked words were theſe, Let him go if he will. Then that Scripture gave me hope, I will never leave thee, nor forſake thee, Heb 13. 5. O Lord, ſaid I, but I have left thee. Then it answered again, But I will not leave thee. For this I thank God alſo.

218. Yet I was grievous afraid he ſhould, and found it exceeding hard to truſt him, ſeeing I had ſo offended him. I could have been exceeding glad that this thought had never befa"en, for then I thought I could, with more eaſe and freedom abundance, have lean'd on his Grace. I ſee it was with me, as it was with Joſeph's Brethren; thren; the guilt of their own wickedness did often fill them with fears, that their Brother would at last despise them, Gen. 50. 15, 16, &c.

219. Yet, above all the Scriptures that I yet did meet with, that in Josh. 20. was the greatest comfort to me, which speaks of the slayer that was to flee for refuge: And if the avenger of blood pursue the slayer, then, saith Moses, they that are the elders of the city of refuge shall not deliver him into his hand, because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not afore-time. Oh, blessed be God for this word: I was convinced that I was the Slayer; and that the Avenger of Blood pursued me, I felt with great terrour; only now it remained, that I enquire whether I have right to enter the City of Refuge: So I found, that he must not, who lay in wait to shed blood: It was not the wilful Murderer, but he who unwittingly did it, he who did it unawares; not out of spight, or grudge, or malice, he that shed it unwittingly; even he who did not hate his Neighbour before. Wherefore,

220. I thought verily, I was the man that must enter, because I had smitten my Neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not afore-time: I hated him not afore-time; no, I prayed unto him, was tender of sinning against him; yea, and against this wicked temptation I had strove for a twelve-month before; yea, and also, when it did pass through my heart, it did in spight of my my Teeth : wherefore I thought I had right to enter this City, and the Elders, which are the Apostles, were not to deliver me up. This therefore was great Comfort to me, and did give me much ground of hope.

221. Yet being very critical, for my smart had made me that I knew not what ground was sure enough to bear me, I had one question that my Soul did much desire to be resolved about; and that was, Whether it be possible for any Soul that hath indeed sinned the unpardonable sin, yet after that to receive, though but the least true spiritual comfort from God through Christ ? The which after I had much considered, I found the answer was, No, they could not ; and that for these Reasons :

222. First, Because those that have sinned that sin, they are debarred a share in the Blood of Christ, and being shut out of that, they must needs be void of the least ground of hope, and so of spiritual comfort, for to such there remains no more sacrifice for sin, Heb. 10. 26, 27. Secondly, Because they are denied a share in the Promise of Life: they shall never be forgiven, neither in this World, nor in that which is to come, Mat. 12. 31. Thirdly, The Son of God excludes them also from a share in his blessed Intercession, being for ever ashamed to own them both before his holy Father, and the blessed Angels in Heaven, Mark 8.
F being

223. When I had with much deliberation considered of this matter, and could not but conclude that the Lord had comforted me, and that too after this my wicked sin; then methought I durst venture to come nigh unto those most fearful and terrible Scriptures, with which all this while I had been so greatly affrighted, and on which indeed before I durst scarce cast mine Eye, (yea, had much ado an hundred times to forbear wishing of them out of the Bible, for I thought they would destroy me) but now, I say, I began to take some measure of encouragement, to come close to them, to read them, and consider them, and to weigh their scope and tendency.

224. The which when I began to do, I found their visage changed; for they looked not so grimly as before I thought they did: And first I came to the sixth of the Hebrews, yet trembling for fear it should strike me; which when I had considered, I found that the falling there intended, was a falling quite away; That is, as I conceived, a falling from, and an absolute denying of the Gospel of remission of sins by Christ; for, from them the Apostle begins his Argument, vers. 1, 2, 3. Secondly, I found that this falling away, must be openly, even in the view of the World, even so as to put Christ to an open shame. Thirdly, I found that those he there intended, were for ever shut up of God both in blindness, hardness, and impenitency: It is impossible they should be renewed again unto Repentance. By all these particulars, I found, to Gods everlasting Praise, my sin was not the sin in this place intended.

First, I confessed I was fallen, but not fallen away, that is from the profession of Faith in Jesus unto eternal Life.

Secondly, I confessed that I had put Jesus Christ to shame by my sin, but not to open shame. I did not deny him before men, nor condemn him as a fruitless one before the World.

Thirdly, Nor did I find that God had shut me up, or denyed me to come (though I found it hard work indeed to come) to him by sorrow and repentance: blessed be God for unsearchable Grace.

225. Then I considered that in the tenth of the Hebrews; and found that the wilful sin there mentioned, is not every wilful sin, but that sin which doth throw off Christ, and then his Commandments too. Secondly, That must also be done openly, before two or three Witnesses, to answer that of the Law, vers. 28. Thirdly, This sin cannot be committed but with great despite done to the Spirit of Grace; despising both the dissuasions from that sin, and the perswasions to the contrary. But the Lord knows, though this my sin was devilish, yet it did not amount to these.

226. And as touching that in the twelfth of the Hebrews, about Esau's selling his Birth-right, though this was that which killed me, and stood like a spear against me; yet now I did consider, First, That his was not a hasty thought against the continual labour of his Mind; but a thought consented to, and put in practice likewise, and that too after some deliberation: Gen. 25. Secondly, It was a publick and open action, even before his Brother, if not before many more; this made his sin of a far more heinous nature then otherwise it would have been. Thirdly, He continued to slight his Birth-right: He did eat and drink, and went his way; thus Esau despised his Birth-right; yea, twenty years after he was found to despise it still. And Esau said, I have enough, my Brother, keep that thou hast to thy self, Gen. 33. 9.

227. Now

227. Now as touching this, That Esau sought a place of Repentance: thus I thought, First, This was not for the Birth-right, but the blessing; this is clear from the Apostle, and is distinguished by Esau himself, he hath taken away my Birth-right, (that is, formerly) and now he hath taken away my blessing also, Gen. 27, 36. Secondly, Now this being thus considered, I came again to the Apostle, to see what might be the mind of God, in a New-Testament stile and sense concerning Esau's sin; and so far as I could conceive, this was the mind of God, That the Birth-right signified Regeneration, and the Blessing the Eternal Inheritance; for so the Apostle seems to hint, Lest there be any prophane Person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his Birth-right; as if he should say, Lest there be any Person amongst you that shall cast off all those blessed beginnings of God that at present are upon him, in order to a new Birth, lest they become as Esau, even be rejected afterwards, when they would inherit the Blessing.

228. For many there are, who in the day of Grace and Mercy, despise those things which are indeed the Birth-right to Heaven, who yet when the deciding day appears, will cry as loud as Esau, Lord, Lord, open to us, but then, as Isaac would not repent, no more will God the Father, but will say, I have blessed these, yea, and they shall be blessed; but as for you, Depart, you are workers of Iniquity, Gen. 27. 32. Luke 13. 25, 26, 27.

229. When I had thus considered these Scriptures, and found that thus to understand them, was not against, but according to other Scriptures; this still added further to my encouragement and comfort, and also gave a great blow to that Objection, to wit, That the Scriptures could not agree in the Salvation of my Soul. And now remained only the hinder part of the Tempest, for the thunder was gone beyond me, only some drops did still remain, that now and then would fall upon me; but because my former frights and anguish were very sore and deep, therefore it did oft befall me still, as it befalleth those that have been scared with Fire, I thought every voice was fire, fire; every little touch would hurt my tender Conscience.

230. But one day, as I was passing in the field, and that too with some dashes on my Conscience, fearing lest yet all was not right, suddenly this sentence fell upon my Soul, Thy Righteousness is in Heaven; and methought withal, I saw with the Eyes of my Soul, Jesus Christ at Gods right hand, there,

I say, was my righteousness; so that where ever I was, or whatever I was a doing, God could not say of me, He wants my Righteousness, for that was just before him. I also saw moreover, that it was not my good frame of Heart that made my Righteousness better, nor yet my bad frame that made my Righteousness worse: for my Righteousness was Jesus Christ himself, the same yesterday, to day, and for ever; Heb. 13. 8.

231. Now did my Chains fall off my Legs indeed, I was loosed from my Afflictions and Irons, my Temptations also fled away; so that from that time those dreadful Scriptures of God left off to trouble me; now went I also home rejoycing, for the Grace and Love of God; So when I came home, I looked to see if I could find that Sentence, Thy Righteousness is in Heaven; but could not find such a saying, wherefore my Heart began to sink again, only that was brought to my remembrance, 1 Cor. 1. 33. He is made unto us of God, Wisdom, Righteousness, Sanctification, and Redemption; by this word I saw the other Sentence true.

232. For by this Scripture, I saw that the Man Christ Jesus, as he is distinct from us, as touching his bodily presence, so he is our Righteousness and Sanctification before God, here therefore I lived, for some time, very sweetly at peace with God through Christ; O me thought Christ! Christ! there was nothing but Christ that was before my Eyes, I was not now (only) for looking upon this and the other benefits of Christ apart, as of his Blood, Burial, or Resurrection, but considered him as whole Christ; as he in whom all these, and all his other Vertues, Relations, Offices and Operations met together, and that as he sat on the right hand of God in Heaven.

233. 'Twas glorious to me to see his exaltation, and the worth and prevalency of all his benefits, and that because now I could look from my self to him, and should reckon, that all those Graces of God that now were green on me, were yet but like those crackt-groats and four pence-half-pennies that rich men carry in their Purfes, when their Gold is in their Trunks at home; O, I saw my Gold was in my Trunk at home! in Christ my Lord and Saviour! Now Christ was all; all my Wisdom, all my Righteousness, all my Sanctification, and all my Redemption.

234. Further, The Lord did also lead me into the Mystery of Union with the Son of God, that I was joyned to him, that I was flesh of his flesh, and bone of his bone, and now was that a sweet word to me, in Ephes. 5. 30. By this also was my Faith in him, as my Righteousness, the more confirmed in me; for if he and I were one, then his Righteousness was mine, his Merits mine, his Victory also mine. Now could I see my self in Heaven and Earth at once; in Heaven by my Christ, by my Head, by my Righteousness and Life, though on Earth by my Body or Person.

235. Now I saw Christ Jesus was looked on of God, and should also be looked upon by us as that common or publick Person, in whom all the whole body of his Elect are always to be considered and reckoned; that we fulfilled the Law by him, died by him, rose from the dead by him, got the Victory over Sin, Death, the Devil, and Hell, by him; when he died, we died, and so of his Resurrection. Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise, saith he, Isa. 26. And again, After two days he will revive us, and the third day we shall live in his sight, Hosea 6. 2. Which is now fulfilled by the sitting down of the Son of Man on the right hand of the Majesty in the Heavens; according to that to the Ephesians, He hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly Places in Christ Jesus, Ephes. 2. 6.

236. Ah these blessed considerations and Scriptures, with many other of like nature, were in those days made to spangle in mine Eyes, so that I have cause to say; Praise ye the Lord God in his Sanctuary, Praise him in the Firmament of his Power, Praise him for his mighty Acts, Praise him according to his excellent Greatness, Psal. 150. 1, 2.

237. Having thus in few words given you a taste of the sorrow and affliction that my Soul went under, by the guilt and terror that this my wicked thought did lay me under; and having given you also a touch of my deliverance therefrom, and of the sweet and blessed comfort that I met with afterwards, (which comfort dwelt about a twelve month with my Heart, to my unspeakable admiration) I will now (God willing) before I proceed any further, give you in a word or two, What, as I conceive, was the cause of this temptation; and also after that, what advantage at the last it became unto my Soul.

238. For the causes, I conceived they were principally two; of which two also I was deeply convinced all the time this trouble lay upon me. The first was, for that I did not, when I was delivered from the temptation that went before, still pray to God to keep me from temptations that were to come; for though, as I can say say in truth, my Soul was much in Prayer before this tryal seized me. Yet then I prayed only, or at the most, principally, for the removal of present troubles, and for fresh discoveries of his love in Christ; which I saw afterwards was not enough to do; I also should have prayed, that the great God would keep me from the evil that was to come.

239. Of this I was made deeply sensible by the Prayer of Holy David, who when he was under present Mercy, yet prayed that God would hold him back from sin, and temptation to come: For then, saith he, shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the Great Transgression, Psal. 16. 13. By this very word was I gauled and condemned quite through this long temptation.

240. That also was another word that did much condemn me for my folly, in the neglect of this Duty, Heb. 4. 16. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of Grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find Grace to help in time of need: This I had not done, and therefore was thus suffered to sin and fall, according to what is written, Pray that you enter not into temptation: and truly this very thing is to this day of such weight and awe upon me, that I dare not, when I come before the Lord,

Lord, go off my knees until I intreat him for help and mercy against the temptations that are to come; and I do beseech thee, Reader, that thou learn to beware of my negligence by the afflictions that for this thing I did for days, and months, and years, with sorrow undergo.

241. Another cause of this temptation was, That I had tempted God; and on this manner did I do it: Upon a time my Wife was great with Child, and before her full time was come, her pangs as of a Woman in Travel, were fierce and strong upon her, even as if she would immediately have fallen in labour, and been delivered of an untimely Birth: Now at this very time it was, that I had been so strongly tempted to question the Being of God; wherefore, as my Wife lay crying by me, I said, but with all secrecie imaginable, even thinking in my heart, Lord, if thou wilt now remove this sad affliction from my Wife, and cause that she be troubled no more therewith this Night, ( and now were her pangs just upon her ) then I shall know that thou canst discern the most secret thoughts, of the Heart.

242. I had no sooner said it in my heart, but her pangs were taken from her, and she was cast into a deep sleep, and so continued till Morning; at this I greatly marvelled, not knowing what to think; but after I had been awake a good while, and heard her cry no more, I fell to sleep also; So when I waked in the Morning, it came upon me again, even what I had said in my heart the last Night, and how the Lord had shewed me that he knew my secret Thoughts, which was a great astonishment unto me for several weeks after.

243. Well, about a year and a half afterwards that wicked sinful thought, of which I have spoken before, went thorow my wicked heart, even this thought, Let Christ go if he will; so when I was fallen under guilt for this, the remembrance of my other thought, and of the effect thereof, would also come upon me with this retort, which also carried rebuke along with it, Now you may see that God doth know the most secret thoughts of the Heart.

244. And with this, that of the passages that were betwixt the Lord, and his Servant Gideon, fell upon my Spirit; how because that Gideon tempted God with his Fleece both wet and dry, when he should have believed and ventured upon his word, therefore the Lord did afterwards so try him, as to send him against an innumerable company of Enemies. And that too as to ourward appearance, without any strength or help, Judg. 6. 7. Thus he served me, and that justly, for I should have believed his Word, and not have put an If upon the All-seeingness of God.

245. And now to shew you something of the advantages that I also have gained by this temptation; and first, by this I was made continually to possess in my Soul a very wonderful sense both of the Being and Glory of God, and of his beloved Son; in the temptation that went before, my Soul was perplexed with unbelief, blasphemy, hardness of Heart, questions about the Being of God, Christ, the Truth of the Word, and certainty of the World to come; I say, then I was greatly assaulted, and tormented with Atheism, but now the case was otherwise, now was God and Christ continually before my Face, though not in a way of comfort, but in a way of exceeding dread and terror. The Glory of the Holiness of God did at this time break me to pieces, and the Bowels and Compassion of Christ did break me as on the Wheel; for I could not consider him but as a lost and rejected Christ, the rememremembrance of which, was as the continual breaking of my Bones.

246. The Scriptures also were wonderful things unto me; I saw that the truth and verity of them, were the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven; those that the Scriptures favour, they must inherit bliss; but those that they oppose and condemn, must perish for evermore: O this word, For the Scriptures cannot be broken, would rend the Caul of my Heart? and so would that other, Whose sins ye remit, they are remitted; but whose sins ye retain, they are retained: Now I saw the Apostles to be the Elders of the City of Refuge, Josh. 20. 4. those that they were to receive in, were received to Life? but those that they shut out, were to be slain by the avenger of Blood.

247. Oh! One Sentence of the Scripture did more afflict and terrifie my mind, I mean those Sentences that stood against me (as sometimes I thought they every one did) more, I say than an Army of forty thousand men that might have come against me. Wo be to him against whom the Scriptures bend themselves.

248. By this temptation I was made to see more into the Nature of the Promises, than ever I was before; for I lying now trembling under

under the mighty hand of God, continually torn and rent by the thundering of his Justice; this made me with careful Heart, and watchful Eye, with great fearfulness, to turn over every leaf, and with much diligence mixt with trembling, to consider every Sentence, together with its natural force and latitude.

249. By this temptation also, I was greatly holden off my former foolish practice, of putting by the word of promise when it came into my mind; for now, though I could not suck that comfort and sweetness from the Promise, as I had done at other times, yet, like to a man a sinking, I should catch at all I saw; formerly I thought I might not meddle with the promise, unless I felt its comfort, but now 'twas no time thus to do, the avenger of Blood too hardly did pursue me.

250. Now therefore I was glad to catch at that word, which yet I feared, I had no ground nor right to own; and even to leap into the bosom of that promise, that yet I fear'd did shut its Heart against me. Now also I should labour to take the Word as God hath laid it down, without restraining the natural force of one syllable thereof; O what did I now see in that blessed sixth of John, And him that comes to me, I will in no wise wise cast out! John. 6. 30. Now I began to consider with my self, that God had a bigger mouth to speak with, than I had a heart to conceive with; I thought also with my self, that he spake not his words in haste, or in an unadvised heat, but with infinite Wisdom and Judgment, and in very truth and faithfulness, 2 Sam. 3. 28.

251. I should in these days, often in my greatest Agonies, even flounce towards the Promise, (as the Horses do towards sound Ground, that yet stick in the mire) concluding, (though as one almost bereft of his wits through fear) on this I will rest and stay, and leave the fulfilling of it to the God of Heaven that made it. O! many a pull hath my heart had with Sathan, for that blessed sixth of John; I did not now, as at other times, look principally for comfort, (though, O how welcome would it have been unto me!) But now a word, a word to lean a weary Soul upon, that I might not sink for ever! 'twas that I hunted for.

252. Yea, often when I have been making to the Promise, I have seen as if the Lord would refuse my Soul for ever; I was often as if I had run upon the Pikes, and as if the Lord had thrust at me, to keep me from him, as with a flaming Sword. Then

I should think of Esther, who went to petition the King contrary to the Law, Eth. 4. 16. I thought also of Benhadad's Servants, who went with Ropes upon their Heads to their Enemies for mercy, 1 King. 20. 31. &c. The Woman of Canaan also, that would not be daunted, though called Dog by Christ, Mat. 15. 22. &c. and the man that went to borrow bread at Midnight, Luke 1. 5, 6, 7, 8, &c. were great encouragements unto me.

253. I never saw those heights and depths in Grace and Love, and Mercy, as I saw after this temptation! Great Sins do draw out great Grace; and where guilt is most terrible and fierce, there the mercy of God in Christ, when shewed to the Soul, appears most high and mighty; when Job had passed through his Captivity, he had twice as much as he had before, Job. 42. 10. Blessed be God for Jesus Christ our Lord. Many other things I might here make observation of, but I would be brief, and therefore shall at this time omit them, and do pray God that my harms may make others fear to offend, lest they also be made to bear the Iron Yoke as I did.

I had two or three times, at or about my deliverance from this temptation such strange apprehensions of the Grace of God, that I could could hardly bear up under it, it was so out of measure amazing, when I thought it could reach me, that I do think, if that sense of it had abode long upon me, it would have made me incapable for business.

254. Now I shall go forward to give you a relation of other of the Lords dealings with me, at sundry other seasons, and of the temptations I then did meet withal. I shall begin with what I met with when I first did joyn in fellowship with the People of God in Bedford. After I had propounded to the Church, that my desire was to walk in the Order and Ordinances of Christ with them, and was also admitted by them: while I thought of that blessed Ordinance of Christ, which was his last Supper with his Disciples before his death, that Scripture, Do this in remembrance of me, Luke 22. 19. was made a very precious word unto me: for by it the Lord did come down upon my Conscience with the discovery of his death for my sins, and as I then felt, did as if he plunged me in the vertue of the same. But, behold, I had not been long a partaker at that Ordinance, but such fierce and sad temptations did attend me at all times therein, both to blaspheme the Ordinance, and to wish some deadly thing to those that then did eat thereof: that left

I should at any time be guilty of consenting to these wicked and fearful thoughts, I was forced to bend my self, all the while to pray to God to keep me from such Blasphemies: and also to cry to God to bless the Bread and Cup to them, as it went from mouth to mouth. The reason of this temptation I have thought since, was, because I did not with that reverence as became me at first, approach to partake thereof.

255. Thus I continued for three quarters of a Year, and could never have rest nor ease: but at the last the Lord came in upon my Soul with that same Scripture, by which my Soul was visited before: and after that, I have been usually very well and comfortable in the partaking of that blessed Ordinance, and have, I trust, therein discerned the Lords Body as broken for my sins, and that his precious blood hath been shed for my Transgressions.

256. Upon a time I was somewhat inclining to a Consumption, wherewith about the Spring I was suddenly and violently seized, with much weakness in my outward man: insomuch that I thought I could not live. Now began I afresh to give my self up to a serious examination after my state and condition for the future, and of my evidences dences for that blessed World to come; For it hath, I bless the name of God, been my usual course, as always, so especially in the day of affliction, to endeavour to keep my interest in Life to come, clear before mine Eye.

257. But I had no sooner began to recall to mind my former experience, of the goodness of God to my Soul, but there came flocking into my mind, an innumerable company of my Sins and Transgressions, amongst which these were at this time most to my Affliction, namely my deadness, dullness, and coldness in holy Duties; my wanderings of heart, of my wearisomness in all good things, my want of love to God, his ways and People, with this at the end of all, Are these the fruits of Christianity? Are these the tokens of a blessed man?

258. At the apprehensions of these things, my sickness was doubled upon me, for now was I sick in my inward man, my Soul was clog'd with guilt; now also was all my former experience of God's goodness to me, quite taken out of my mind, and hid as if they had never been, nor seen: Now was my Soul greatly pinched between these two considerations, Live I must not, Die I dare not; Now I sunk and fell in my spirit, and was giving giving up all for lost ; but as I was walking up and down in the house as a man in a most woful state, that Word of God took hold of my heart. Ye are justified freely by his Grace, through the Redemption that is in Christ Jesus, Rom. 3. 24. But oh what a turn it made upon me !

259. Now was I as one awaked out of some troublesome sleep and dream, and listning to this Heavenly Sentence, I was as if I heard it thus expounded to me ; Sinner, thou thinkest that because of thy Sins and Infirmities, I cannot save thy Soul ; but behold, my Son is by me, and upon him I look, and not on thee, and deal with thee according as I am pleased with him. At this I was greatly lightned in my Mind, and made to understand that God could justifie a sinner at any time, it was but his looking upon Christ, and imputing of his benefits to us, and the work was forthwith done.

260. And as I was thus in a muse, that Scripture also came with great power upon my Spirit, Not by works of Righteousness that we have done, but according to his Mercy he hath saved us, &c. 2 Tim. 1. 9. Tit. 3. 5. Now was I got on high, I saw my self within the Arms of Grace and mercy, and though I was before afraid to think of a dying hour, yet now I cryed, Let me die: now Death was lovely and beautiful in my sight, for I saw we shall never live indeed till we be gone to the other World. O, methought this Life is but a slumber, in comparison of that above; at this time also I saw more in those words, Heirs of God, (Rom. 8. 17.) then ever I shall be able to express while I live in this World; Heirs of God! God himself is the portion of the Saints. This I saw and wondered at, but cannot tell you what I saw.

261. Again, as I was at another time very ill and weak, all that time also the Tempter did beset me strongly, (for I find he is much for assaulting the Soul, when it begins to approach towards the Grave, then is his Opportunity) labouring to hide from me my former experience of Gods goodness; Also setting before me the terrors of Death, and the Judgment of God, insomuch, that at this time, through my fear of miscarrying for ever (should I now die) I was as one dead before Death came, and was as if I had felt my self already descending into the Pit; methought, I said there were no way but to Hell I must; but behold, just as I was in the midst of those fears, these words of the Angels carrying Lazarus into Abrahams bosom, darted in upon me, as who should say, So it shall shall be with thee, when thou dost leave this World. This did sweetly revive my Spirit, and help me to hope in God; which when I had with comfort mused on a while, that word fell with great weight upon my mind, O Death, where is thy sting, O Grave, where is thy victory? 1 Cor 15. 55. At this I became both well in body and mind at once, for my sickness did presently vanish, and I walked comfortably in my Work for God again.

262. At another time, though, just before, I was pretty well and savoury in my Spirit, yet suddenly there fell upon me a great cloud of darkness, which did so hide from me the things of God and Christ, that I was as if I had never seen or known them in my life: I was also so over-run in my Soul with a senseless, heartless frame-of-spirit, that I could not feel my Soul to move or stir after Grace and Life by Christ; I was as if my loyns were broken, or as if my hands and feet had been tied or bound with Chains. At this time also I felt some weakness to seize upon my outward man, which made still the other affliction the more heavy and uncomfortable to me.

263. After I had been in this condition some three or four days, as I was sitting by the fire, I suddenly felt this Word to sound in my Heart, I must go to Jesus; at this my former darkness and Atheism fled away, and the blessed things of Heaven were set within my view. While I was on this sudden thus overtaken with surprize; Wife, said I, is there ever such a Scripture, I must go to Jesus? she said she could not tell; therefore I sat musing still to see if I could remember such a place; I had not sat above two or three minutes, but that came bolting in upon me, And to an innumerable Company of Angels; and withal, Hebrews the twelfth, about the Mount Sion was set before mine Eyes, Heb. 12. 22, 23, 24.

264. Then with Joy I told my Wife, O now I know, I know! but that night was a good night to me, I never had but few better; I longed for the company of some of God's People, that I might have imparted unto them what God had shewed me; Christ was a precious Christ to my Soul that Night, I could scarce lie in my Bed for Joy, and Peace, and Triumph, through Christ; this great Glory did not continue upon me until Morning, yet the twelfth of the Author to the Hebrews, Heb. 12. 22, 23. was a blessed Scripture to me for many days together after this.

265. The Words are these, You are come to Mount Sion, to the City of the living God, to the Heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of Angels, to the general Assembly and Church of the first-born which are written in Heaven, to God the Judge of all, and to the Spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the New Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. Thorow this blessed Sentence, the Lord led me over and over, first to this Word, and then to that, and shewed me wonderful glory in every one of them. These words also have oft since this time been great refreshment to my Spirit. Blessed be God for having mercy on me.

A brief Account of the Authors Call to the Work of the Ministry.

266. AND now I am speaking my Experience, I will in this place thrust in a word or two concerning my Preaching the Word, and of God's dealing with me in that particular also: For after I had been about five or six years awakened, and helped my my self to see both the want and worth of Jesus Christ our Lord, and also inabled to venture my Soul upon him: some of the most able among the Saints with us, I say, the most able for Judgment, and Holiness of Life, as they conceived, did perceive that God had counted me worthy to understand something of his Will in his holy and blessed Word, and had given me utterance in some measure to express what I saw, to others for edification; therefore they desired me, and that with much earnestness, that I would be willing at some times to take in hand, in one of the Meetings, to speak a word of Exhortation unto them.

267. The which, though at the first it did much dash and abash my Spirit, yet being still by them desired and intreated, I consented to their request, and did twice at two several Assemblies, ( but in private ) though with much weakness and infirmity, discover my Gift amongst them; at which they not only seemed to be, but did solemnly protest, as in the sight of the great God, they were both affected and comforted, and gave thanks to the Father of Mercies for the grace bestowed on me.

268. After this, sometimes when some of them did go into the Country to teach, they would also that I should go with them; where though as yet I did not, nor durst not, make use of my Gift in an open way, yet more privately still, as I came amongst the good People in those places, I did sometimes speak a word of Admonition unto them also; the which they as the other, received with rejoycing at the mercy of God to me-ward, professing their Souls were edified thereby.

269. Wherefore, to be brief, at last, being still desired by the Church, after some solemn Prayer to the Lord, with fasting, I was more particularly called forth, and appointed to a more ordinary and publick Preaching the Word, not only to and amongst them that believed, but also to offer the Gospel to those that had not yet received the Faith thereof: About which time I did evidently find in my Mind a secret pricking forward thereto; though, I bless God, not for desire of vain Glory, for at that time I was most sorely afflicted with the fiery darts of the Devil, concerning my Eternal State.

270. But yet could not be content, unless I was found in the Exercise of my Gift, unto which also I was greatly animated, not only by the continual desires of the Godly, but also by that saying of Paul to the Corinthians, I beseech you, Brethren, (ye know the household of Stephanus, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the Ministry of the Saints ) that you submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth, 1 Cor. 16. 15, 16.

271. By this Text I was made to see that the Holy Ghost never intended that men who have Gifts and Abilities, should bury them in the earth, but rather did command and stir up such to the Exercise of their Gift, and also did commend those that were apt and ready so to do, They have addicted themselves to the Ministry of the Saints: This Scripture in these days did continually run in my mind to encourage me, and strengthen me in this my work for God; I have been also encouraged from several other Scriptures and Examples of the Godly, both specified in the Word and other ancient Histories, Acts 8. 4. and 18. 24, 25. &c. 1 Pet. 4. 10. Rom. 12. 6. Fox Acts and Mon.

272. Wherefore, though of my self, of all the Saints the most unworthy, yet I, but with great fear and trembling at the sight of my own weakness, did set upon the work, and did according to my Gift, and the proportion of my Faith, Preach that blessed Gospel that God had shewed me in the Holy Word of Truth: Which when the Country understood, they came in to hear the Word by hundreds, and that from all parts, though upon sundry and divers accounts.

273. And I thank God, he gave unto me some measure of bowels and pity for their Souls, which also did put me forward to labour with great diligence and earnestness to find out such a word as might, if God would bless, lay hold of, and awaken the Conscience, in which also the good Lord had respect to the desire of his Servant; for I had not preached long, before some began to be touched, and to be greatly afflicted in their Minds at the apprehension of the greatness of their Sin, and of their need of Jesus Christ.

274. But I at first could not believe that God should speak by me to the heart of any man, still counting my self unworthy, yet those who thus were touched would love me and have a peculiar respect for me; and though I did put it from me, that they should be awakened by me, still they would confess it, and affirm it before the Saints of God; they would also bless God for me (unworthy Wretch that I am!) and count me God's Instrument that shewed to them the way of Salvation.

275. Where-

275. Wherefore seeing them in both their words and deeds to be so constant, and also in their Hearts so earnestly pressing after the knowledge of Jesus Christ, rejoycing that ever God did send me where they were; then I began to conclude it might be so, that God had owned in his Work such a foolish one as I; and then came that Word of God to my heart with much sweet refreshment, The blessing of them that were ready to perish is come upon me; yea, I caused the Widdows heart to sing for joy. Job. 29. 13.

276. At this therefore I rejoyced, yea, the tears of those whom God did awaken by my Preaching, would be both solace and encouragement to me; for I thought on those Sayings, Who is he that maketh me glad, but the same that is made sorry by me? 2 Cor. 2. 2. And again, Though I be not an Apostle to others, yet doubtless I am unto you, for the Seal of my Apostleship are ye in the Lord, 1 Cor. 6. 2. These things therefore were as another Argument unto me that God had called me to, and stood by me in this Work.

277. In my Preaching of the Word, I took special notice of this one thing, namely, That the Lord did lead me to begin where his Word begins with Sinners, that is, to condemn all flesh, and to open and alledge ledge, that the curse of God by the Law doth belong to, and lay hold on all men as they come into the World, because of Sin. Now this part of my Work I fulfilled with great sense, for the terrors of the Law, and guilt for my Transgressions, lay heavy on my Conscience, I preached what I felt, what I smartingly did feel, even that under which my poor Soul did groan and tremble to astonishment.

278. Indeed I have been as one sent to them from the dead; I went my self in Chains to preach to them in Chains, and carried that fire in my own Conscience, that I perswaded them to beware of. I can truly say, and that without dissembling, that when I have been to preach, I have gone full of guilt and terror even to the Pulpit-door, and there it hath been taken off, and I have been at liberty in my mind until I have done my work; and then immediately, even before I could get down the Pulpit-stairs, I have been as bad as I was before. Yet God carried me on, but surely with a strong hand; for neither Guilt nor Hell could take me off my Work.

279. Thus I went for the space of two years, crying out against mens sins, and their fearful state because of them. After which, the Lord came in upon my own Soul with some staid peace and comfort through Christ; for he did give me many sweet discoveries of his Blessed Grace thorow him; Wherefore now I altered in my preaching, ( for still I preached what I saw and felt ) now therefore I did much labour to hold forth Jesus Christ in all his Offices, Relations, and Benefits unto the World, and did strive also to discover, to condemn, and remove those false supports and props on which the World doth both lean, and by them fall and perish. On these things also I staid as long as on the other.

280. After this, God led me into something of the Mystery of the Union of Christ; wherefore that I discovered and shewed to them also. And when I had travelled through these three chief points of the Word of God, about the space of five years or more, I was caught in my present practice, and cast into Prison, where I have lain above as long again to confirm the Truth by way of suffering, as I was before in testifying of it, according to the Scriptures, in a way of Preaching.

281. When I have been in Preaching, I thank God, my heart hath often, all the time of this and the other exercise, with great earnestness cryed to God that he would make the Word effectual to the Salvation of the Soul; still being grieved lest the Enemy should take the Word away from the Conscience, and so it should become unfruitful; Wherefore I should labour so to speak the Word, as that thereby (if it were possible) the sin and Person guilty might be particularized by it.

282. Also when I have done the Exercise, it hath gone to my heart to think the Word should now fall as Rain on stony places; still wishing from my heart, O that they who have heard me speak this day, did but see as I do, what Sin, Death, Hell, and the Curse of God, is; and also what the Grace, and Love, and Mercy of God is, thorow Christ, to men in such a case as they are, who are yet estranged from him. And indeed, I did often say in my heart before the Lord, That if to be hanged up presently before their Eyes, would be a means to awaken them, and confirm them in the Truth, I gladly should be contented.

283. For I have been in my Preaching, especially when I have been engaged in the Doctrine of Life by Christ, without Works, as if an Angel of God had stood by at my back to encourage me; O, it hath been with such Power and heavenly Evidence upon my own Soul, while I have been labouring to unfold it, to demonstrate it, and to fasten it upon the Conscience of others, that I could not be contented with saying, I believe and am sure; methought I was more than sure (if it be lawful to express my self) that those things which then I asserted, were true.

284. When I went first to Preach the Word abroad, the Doctors and Priests of the Country did open wide against me; but I was perswaded of this, not to render rayling for rayling, but to see how many of their carnal Professors I could convince of their miserable state by the Law, and of the want and worth of Christ; for, thought I, This shall answer for me in time to come, when they shall be for my hire before their face, Gen. 30.

285. I never cared to meddle with things that were controverted, and in dispute amongst the Saints, especially things of the lowest Nature; yet it pleased me much to contend with great earnestness for the Word of Faith, and the Remission of Sin by the Death and Sufferings of Jesus; but I say, as to other things, I should let them alone, because I saw they engendred strife, and because that they neither in doing, nor in leaving ving undone, did commend us to God to be his : Besides, I saw my Work before me did run in another Channel, even to carry an awakening word ; to that therefore did I stick and adhere.

286. I never endeavoured to, nor durst make use of other mens lines, Rom. 15. 18. (though I condemn not all that do) for I verily thought, and found by experience, that what was taught me by the Word and Spirit of Christ, could be spoken, maintained and stood to, by the soundest and best established Conscience ; and though I will not now speak all that I know in this matter ; yet my experience hath more interest in that Text of Scripture, Gal. 1. 11, 12. than many amongst men are aware.

287. If any of those who were awakened by my Ministry, did after that fall back, (as sometimes too many did) I can truly say their loss hath been more to me, then if one of my own Children, begotten of my body, had been going to its Grave ; I think verily I may speak it without any offence to the Lord, nothing hath gone so near me as that, unless it was the fear of the loss of the Salvation of my own Soul : I have counted as if I had goodly Buildings and Lordships in those places where my Children were born: my heart hath been so wrapt up in the glory of this excellent Work, that I counted my self more blessed and honoured of God by this, than if he had made me the Emperour of the Christian World, or the Lord of all the glory of the Earth without it! O these words! He that converteth a Sinner from the error of his way, doth save a Soul from death, Jam. 5. 20. The fruit of the Righteous, is a Tree of Life; and he that winneth Souls, is wise, Prov. 11. 30. They that be wise, shall shine as the brightness of the Firmament, and they that turn many to Righteousness, as the Stars for ever and ever, Dan. 12. 3. For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? for, ye are our glory and joy, 1 Thes. 2. 19, 20. These, I say, with many others of a like nature, have been great refreshments to me.

288. I have observed, That where I have had a Work to do for God, I have had first as it were the going of God upon my Spirit to desire I might preach there: I have also observed, that such and such Souls in particular have been strongly set upon my heart, and I stirred up to wish for their Salvation; and that these very Souls have, after this, been given in as the fruits of my Ministry.

I have observed, that a Word cast in by the by, hath done more execution in a Sermon, than all that was spoken besides: sometimes also when I have thought I did no good, then I did most of all; and at other times when I thought I should catcht them, I have fished for nothing.

289. I have also observed, that where there hath been a Work to do upon Sinners, there the Devil hath begun to roar in the hearts, and by the mouths of his Servants. Yea, oftentimes when the wicked World hath raged most, there hath been Souls awakened by the Word: I could instance particulars, but I forbear.

290. My great desire in my fulfilling my Ministry, was, to get into the darkest places of the Country, even amongst those People that were furthest off of profession; yet not because I could not endure the Light, ( for I feared not to shew my Gospel to any ) but because I found my Spirit did lean most after awakening and converting-Work, and the Word that I carried did lean it self most that way also; Yea, so have I strived to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's Foundation, Rom. 15. 20.

291. In

291. In my preaching, I have really been in pain, and have, as it were, travelled to bring forth Children to God, neither could I be satisfied; unless some fruits did appear in my Work: if I were fruitless, it mattered not who commended me; but if I were fruitful, I cared not who did condemn. I have thought of that, Lo, Children are an Heritage of the Lord; and the fruit of the Womb is his reward. As Arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are Children of the Youth. Happy is the man that hath filled his Quiver full of them; they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the Enemies in the Gate, Psal. 127. 3, 4, 5.

292. It pleased me nothing to see People drink in Opinions, if they seemed ignorant of Jesus Christ, and the worth of their own Salvation, sound conviction for Sin, especially for Unbelief, and an heart set on fire to be saved by Christ, with strong breathings after a truly sanctified Soul: that it was that delighted me; those were the Souls I counted blessed.

293. But in this Work, as in all other, I had my temptations attending me, and that of divers kinds, as sometimes I should be assaulted with great discouragement therein, fearing that I should not be able to speak a word word at all to edification; nay, that I should not be able to speak sense unto the people; at which times I should have such a strange faintness and strengthlessness seize upon my body, that my legs have scarce been able to carry me to the place of Exercise.

294. Sometimes again, when I have been preaching, I have been violently assaulted with thoughts of blasphemy, and strongly tempted to speak the words with my mouth before the Congregation. I have also at some time, even when I have begun to speak the Word with much clearness, evidence, and liberty of speech, yet been before the ending of that Opportunity, so blinded, and so estranged from the things I have been speaking, and have also been so straitened in my speech, as to utterance before the People, that I have been as if I had not known or remembered what I have been about, or, as if my head had been in a bag all the time of the Exercise.

295. Again, When at sometimes I have been about to Preach upon some smart and searching portion of the Word, I have found the Tempter suggest, What! will you preach this? this condemns your self, of this your own Soul is guilty; wherefore preach not of it at all, or if you do, yet so mince it, as to make way for your own escape; but instead of awakening others, you lay that guilt upon your own Soul, as you will never get from under.

296. But, I thank the Lord, I have been kept from consenting to these so horrid suggestions, and have rather, as Sampson, bowed my self with all my might to condemn Sin and Transgression where ever I found it, yea though therein also I did bring guilt upon my own Conscience; Let me dye, thought I, with the Philistines, Judg. 16. 29, 30. rather than deal corruptly with the blessed Word of God; Thou that teachest another, teachest thou not thy self? it is far better that thou do judge thy self, even by preaching plainly unto others, then that thou, to save thy self, imprison the Truth in Unrighteousness: Blessed be God for his help also in this.

297. I have also, while found in this blessed Work of Christ, been often tempted to pride and liftings up of Heart; and though I dare not say, I have not been affected with this, yet truly the Lord of his precious mercy hath so carried it towards me, that for the most part I have had but small joy to give way to such a thing: for it hath been my every days portion to be let into the evil of my own heart, and still made to see such a mul-

a multitude of Corruptions and Infirmities therein, that it hath caused hanging down of the head under all my Gifts and Attainments; I have felt this Thorn in the Flesh (2 Cor. 12. 8, 9,) the very Mercy of God to me.

298. I have had also together with this some notable place or other of the Word presented before me, which word hath contained in it some sharp and piercing Sentence concerning the perishing of the Soul, notwithstanding gifts and parts; as for instance, that hath been of great use unto me, Though I speak with the Tongue of Men and Angels, and have not Charity, I am become as sounding brass, and a tinkling Cymbal, 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2.

299. A tinkling Cymbal, is an Instrument of Musick with which a skilful Player can make such melodious and heart-inflaming Musick, that all who hear him play, can scarcely hold from dancing; and yet behold, the Cymbal hath not Life, neither comes the Musick from it, but because of the Art of him that plays therewith, so then the Instrument at last may come to naught and perish, though in times past such Musick hath been made upon it.

300. Just thus, I saw, it was and will be with them who have Gifts, but want saving-Grace;

Grace ; they are in the hand of Christ, as the Cymbal in the hand of David ; and as David could with the Cymbal make that Mirth in the Service of God, as to elevate the hearts of the Worshippers, so Christ can use these gifted men, as with them to affect the Souls of his People in his Church ; yet when he hath done all, hang them by, as lifeless, though sounding Cymbals.

301. This consideration therefore, together with some others, were, for the most part, as a Maul on the head of Pride, and desire of vain-glory : What, thought I, shall I be proud because I am a sounding Brass ? Is it so much to be a Fiddle ? Hath not the least Creature that hath life, more of God in it than these ? Besides, I knew 'twas Love should never die, but these must cease and vanish : So I concluded, a little Grace, a little Love, a little of the true Fear of God is better than all these Gifts : Yea, and I am fully convinced of it, that it is possible for Souls that can scarce give a man an answer, but with great confusion as to method, I say, it is possible for them to have a thousand times more Grace, and so to be more in the love and favour of the Lord, than some who by vertue of the Gift of Knowledge, can deliver themselves like Angels.

302. Thus

302. Thus therefore I came to perceive, that though gifts in themselves were good to the thing for which they are designed, to wit, the Edification of others, yet empty and without power to save the Soul of him that hath them, if they be alone: Neither are they, as so, any sign of a mans state to be happy, being only a dispensation of God to some, of whose improvement or non-improvement they must when a little love more is over, give an account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

303. This shewed me too, that gifts being alone, were dangerous, not in themselves, but because of those evils that attend them that have them, to wit, pride, desire of vain glory, self-conceit, &c. all which were easily blown up at the applause, and commendation of every unadvised Christian, to the endangering of a poor Creature to fall into the condemnation of the Devil.

304. I saw therefore that he that hath Gifts, had need be let into a sight of the nature of them, to wit, that they come short of making of him to be in a truly saved condition, lest he rest in them, and so fall short of the grace of God.

305. He hath also cause to walk humbly with God, and be little in his own Eyes, and to remember withall, that his Gifts are not his own, but the Churches, and that by them he is made a Servant to the Church, and he must also give at last an account of his Stewardship unto the Lord Jesus, and to give a good account, will be a blessed thing!

306. Let all men therefore prize a little with the fear of the Lord, ( Gifts indeed are desirable ) but yet great Grace and small Gifts are better then great Gifts and no Grace. It doth not say, the Lord gives Gifts and Glory, but the Lord gives Grace and Glory! and blessed is such an one; to whom the Lord gives Grace, true Grace, for that is a certain forerunner of Glory.

307. But when Satan perceived that his thus tempting and assaulding of me would not answer his design; to wit, to overthrow my Ministry, and make it ineffectual as to the ends thereof: then he tryed another way, which was, to stir up the minds of the ignorant, and malicious, to load me with slanders and reproaches; now therefore I may say, That what the Devil could devise, and his instruments invent, was whirled up and down the Country against me, thinking, as I said, that by that means they should make my Ministry to be abandoned.

308. It began therefore to be rumored up and down among the People, that I was a Witch, a Jesuit, a High-way-man, and the like.

309. To all which, I shall only say, God knows that I am innocent. But as for mine accusers, let them provide themselves to meet me before the Tribunal of the Son of God, there to answer for all these things (with all the rest of their Iniquities) unless God shall give them Repentance for them, for the which I pray with all my heart.

310. But that which was reported with the boldest confidence, was, that I had my Misses, my Whores, my Bastards, yea, two Wives at once, and the like. Now these slanders (with the other) I glory in, because but slanders, foolish, or knavish lies, and falsehoods cast upon me by the Devil and his Seed, and should I not be dealt with thus wickedly by the World, I should want one sign of a Saint and Child of God. Blessed are you (said the Lord Jesus) when men shall revile you and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil of you falsely for my sake, rejoyce and be exceeding glad, for great is your Reward in Heaven; for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you, Mat. 5. 11.

311. These

311. These things therefore upon mine own account trouble me not, no, though they were twenty times more than they are. I have a good Conscience, and whereas they speak evil of me, as an evil doer, they shall be shamed that falsely accuse my good Conversation in Christ.

312. So then, what shall I say to those that have thus bespattered me? Shall I threaten them? Shall I chide them? Shall I flatter them? Shall I entreat them to hold their Tongues? no, not I, were it not for that these things make them ripe for damnation that are the Authors and Abettors, I would say unto them; Report it? because 'twill increase my Glory.

313. Therefore I bind these lies and slanders to me as an ornament, it belongs to my Christian Profession, to be vilified, slandered, reproached, and reviled; and since all this is nothing else, as my God and my Conscience do bear me witness: I rejoyce in reproaches for Christs sake.

314. I also calling all these fools, or knaves that have thus made it any thing of their business to affirm any of the things aforementioned of me, namely, that I have been naught with other Women, or the like. When they have used to the utmost of their endea-

endeavours, and made the fullest enquiry that they can to prove against me truly that there is any Woman in Heaven, or Earth, or Hell, that can say, that I have at any time, in any place, by day or night, so much as attempted to be naught with them, and speak I thus, to beg mine Enemies into a good esteem of me : No, not I : I will in this beg belief of no man : believe, or disbelieve me in this, all is a case to me.

315. My Foes have mist their mark in this their shooting at me. I am not the man, I wish that they themselves be guiltless, if all the Fornicators and Adulterers in England were hang'd by the Neck till they be dead, John Bunyan, the object of their Envy, would be still alive and well. I know not whether there be such a thing as a Woman breathing under the Copes of the whole Heaven, but by their Apparel, their Children, or by common Fame, except my Wife.

316. And in this I admire the Wisdom of God, that he made me shie of Women from my first Conversion until now, Those know, and can also bear me witness, with whom I have been most intimately concerned, that it is a rare thing to see me carry it pleasant towards a Woman; the common Salutation of Women I abhor, 'tis odious to me in whomsoever I see it. Their Company alone I cannot away with. I seldom so much as touch a Womans Hand, for I think these things are not so becoming me. When I have seen good men Salute those Women that they have visited, or that have visited them, I have at times made my objection against it, and when they have answered that it was but a piece of Civility, I have told them it is not a comely sight: some indeed have urged the holy kisse, but then I have asked why they made baulks, why they did salute the most handsom, and let the ill favoured go? thus how laudable so ever such things have been in the Eyes of others, they have been unseemly in my sight.

317. And now for a wind up in this matter, I calling not only Men, but Angels to prove me guilty of having carnally to do with any Woman save my Wife, nor am I afraid to do it a second time, knowing that it cannot offend the Lord in such a case, to call God for a Record upon my Soul that in these things I am innocent. Not that I have been thus kept because of any goodness in me, more than in any other, but God has been merciful to me and has kept me, to whom I pray that he will keep me still, not only from this but from every evil way and work, and preserve me to his Heavenly Kingdom. Amen.

318. Now as Sathan laboured by reproaches and slanders to make me vile among my Country-men, that, if possible, my Preaching might be made of none effect, so there was added hereto a long and tedious Imprisonment, that thereby I might be frightened from my Service for Christ, and the World terrified, and made afraid to hear me Preach, of which I shall in the next place give you a brief account.

A brief Account of the Authors Imprisonment.

319. HAVING made Profession of the Glorious Gospel of Christ a long time, and Preached the same about five years; I was apprehended at a Meeting of good People in the Countrey, they, ( among whom, had they let me alone, I should have preached that day, but they took me away from amongst them ) and had me before a Justice ; who, after I had offered security for my appearing at the next Sessions, yet committed me, because my Sureties would not consent to be bound that I should Preach no more to the People.

320. At the Sessions after, I was indicted for an Upholder and Maintainer of Unlawful Assemblies and Conventicles, and for not Conforming to the National Worship of the Church of England; and after some Conference there with the Justices, they taking my plain dealing with them for a Confession, as they termed it, of the Indictment, did Sentence me to perpetual banishment, because I refused to Conform. So being again delivered up to the Goalers hands, I was had home to Prison, and there have lain now compleat twelve years, waiting to see what God will suffer these men to do with me.

321. In which condition I have continued with much content through Grace, but have met with many turnings and goings upon my Heart, both from the Lord, Satan, and my own Corruptions; by all which (glory be to Jesus Christ) I have also received, among many things, much Conviction, Instruction, and Understanding, of which at large I shall not here discourse; onely, give you in a hint or two, a word that may stir up the Godly to bleis God, and to pray for me; and also to take encouragement, should the case be their own, Not to fear what man can do unto them.

322. I never had in all my life so great an in-let into the Word of God as now: them Scriptures that I saw nothing in before, are made in this place and state to shine upon me; Jesus Christ also was never more real and apparent than now; here I have seen him and felt him indeed: O that word, We have not preached unto you cunningly devised Fables, 2 Pet. 1. 16. and that, God raised Christ from the Dead; and gave him Glory, that your Faith and Hope might be in God. 1 Pet. 1. 2. were blessed words unto me in this my imprisoned Condition.

323. These three or four Scriptures also have been great refreshment, in this condition, to me? John 14. 1, 2, 3, 4. John 16. 33. Col. 3. 3, 4. Heb. 12. 22, 23, 24. So that sometimes, when I have been in the favour of them, I have been able to laugh laugh at destruction, and to fear neither the Horse nor his Rider. I have had sweet sights of the forgiveness of my Sins in this place, and of my being with Jesus in another World: O the Mount Sion, the heavenly Jerusalem, the innumerable Company of Angels, and God the Judge of all, and the Spirits of Just men made perfect, and Jesus; have been sweet unto me in this place: I have seen that here, that I am perswaded I shall never, while in this World be able to express; I have seen a truth in that Scripture, Whom having not seen, yet love; in whom, though now you see him not yet believing, yet rejoyce with joy unspeakable, and full of Glory. 1 Pet. 1. 8.

324. I never knew what it was for God to stand by me at all turns, and at every offer of Satan to afflict me, &c. as I have found him since I came in hither; for look how fears have presented themselves, so have supports and encouragements; yea, when I have started, even as it were, at nothing else but my shadow, yet God, as being very tender of me, hath not suffered me to be molested, but would with one Scripture or another strengthen me against all; insomuch that I have often said, Were it lawful, I could pray for greater trouble, for the greater comforts sake, Eccl. 7.
H 3 trouble,

14. 2 Cor. 1. 5.

325. Before I came to Prison, I saw what was a coming, and had especially two Considerations warm upon my heart; the first was, How to be able to encounter Death, should that be here my portion, For the first of these, that Scripture, Col. 1. 11. was great information to me, namely, to pray to God to be strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness; I could seldom go to prayer before I was imprisoned, but for not so little as a year together, this Sentence or sweet Petition, would, as it were, thrust it self into my mind, and perswade me, that if ever I would go thorow long suffering, I must have all patience, especially if I would endure it joyfully.

326. As to the second Consideration, that Saying, ( 2 Cor. 1. 9. ) was of great use unto me, But we had the sentence of death in our selves, that we might not trust in our selves, but in God that raiseth the dead: By this Scripture I was made to see that if ever I would suffer rightly, I must first pass a sentence of death upon every thing that can properly be called a thing of this life, even to reckon my self, my Wife, my Children, my Health, my Enjoyments and all, as dead to me, and my self as dead to them.

327. The second was, to live upon God that is invisible; as Paul said in another place, The way not to faint, is to look not at the things that are seen, but at the things that are not seen; for the things that are seen, are temporal, but the things that are not seen, they are eternal: And thus I reasoned with my self; if I provide only for a Prison, then the Whip comes at unawares; and so doth also the Pillory: Again, if I provide only for these, then I am not fit for banishment; further, if I conclude that banishment is the worst, then if Death come, I am surprized; so that I see the best way to go thorow sufferings is to trust in God through Christ, as touching the World to come; and as touching this World, to count the Grave my House, to make my Bed in Darknes, to say to Corruption, Thou art my Father, and to the Worm, Thou art my Mother and Sister; that is, to familiarize these things to me.

328. But notwithstanding these helps, I found my self a man, and compassed with Infirmities; the parting with my Wife and poor Children hath often been to me in this place, as the pulling the Flesh from my Bones; and that not only because I am somewhat too too fond of these great Mercies, but also because I should have often brought to my mind the many hardships, miseries and wants that my poor Family was like to meet with, should I be taken from them, especially my poor blind Child, who lay nearer my heart than all I had besides; O the thoughts of the hardship I thought my blind one might go under, would break my heart to pieces.

329. Poor Child! thought I, what sorrow art thou like to have for thy Portion in this World? Thou must be beaten, must beg, suffer hunger, cold, nakedness, and a thousand Calamities, though I cannot now endure the Wind should blow upon thee: But yet recalling my self, thought I, I must venture you all with God, though it goeth to the quick to leave you; O, I saw in this condition, I was as a man who was pulling down his House upon the head of his Wife and Children; yet thought I, I must do it, I must do it: And now I thought of those two Milch-Kine that were to carry the Ark of God into another Country, and to leave their Calves behind them, 1 Sam. 6. 10, 11, 12.

330. But that which helped me in this temptation, was divers considerations, of which three in special here I will name; the first was, the consideration of those two Scriptures, Leave thy Fatherless Children, I will preserve them alive, and let thy Widows trust in me: and again, The Lord said, Verily it shall go well with thy Remnant, verily, I will cause the Enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil, &c. Jer. 49. 11. Chap. 15. 11.

331. I had also this Consideration, that if I should now venture all for God, I engaged God to take care of my concerns; but if I forsook him and his ways, for fear of any trouble that should come to me or mine; then I should not only falsifie my profession, but should count also that my Concernments were not so sure, if left at Gods feet, whilst I stood to and for his Name, as they would be if they were under my own care, though with the denial of the way of God. This was a smarting consideration, and was as spurs unto my Flesh: That Scripture also greatly helped it to fasten the more upon me, where Christ prays against Judas, that God would disappoint him in all his selfish thoughts, which moved him to sell his Master. Pray read it soberly, Psal. 109. 6, 7, 8, &c.

332. I had also another Consideration, and that was, The dread of the Torments of Hell, which I was sure they must partake of, that for fear of the Cross do shrink from their Profession of Christ, his Word and Laws, before the Sons of men : I thought also of the Glory that he had prepared for those that in Faith, and Love, and Patience stood to his ways before them, These things, I say, have helped me, when the thoughts of the misery that both my self and mine, might, for the sake of my Profession, be exposed to, hath lain pinching on my Mind.

333. When I have indeed conceited that I might be banished for my Profession, then I have thought of that Scripture, They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the Sword; they wandered about in Sheep-Skins, and Goat-Skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented, of whom the World was not worthy, for all they thought they were too bad to dwell and abide amongst them. I have also thought of that saying ; The Holy Ghost witnesseth in every City, that Bonds and Afflictions abide me; I have verily thought that my Soul and it, have have sometimes reasoned about the sore and sad estate of a banished and exiled condition, how they are exposed to Hunger, to Cold, to Perils, to Nakedness, to Enemies, and a thousand Calamities; and at last it may be to die in a Ditch, like a poor forlorn and desolate Sheep. But I thank God hitherto I have not been moved by these most delicate reasonings, but have rather by them more approved my Heart to God.

334. I will tell you of a pretty business; I was once above all the rest, in a very sad and low Condition for many Weeks, at which time also I being but a young Prisoner, and not acquainted with the Laws, had this lay much upon my Spirit, That my Imprisonment might end at the Gallows for ought that I could tell; now therefore Satan laid hard at me to bear me out of heart, by suggesting thus unto me; But how if when you come indeed to die you should be in this Condition; that is, as not to savour the things of God, nor to have any evidence upon your Soul for a better state hereafter? (for indeed at that time all the things of God were hid from my Soul.)

335. Wherefore when I at first began to think of this, it was a great trouble to me: for I thought with my self, that in the Condition I

now was in, I was not fit to die, neither indeed did think I could if I should be called to it: Besides, I thought with my self, if I should make a scrambling shift to clamber up the Ladder, yet I should either with quaking or other symptoms of fainting, give occasion to the Enemy to reproach the Way of God and his People, for their Timorousness. This therefore lay with great trouble upon me, for methought I was ashamed to die with a pale Face, and tottering Knees, for such a Cause as this.

336. Wherefore I pray'd to God that he would comfort me, and give me strength to do and suffer what he should call me to; yet no comfort appear'd, but all continued hid: I was also at this time so really possessed with the thought of death, that oft I was as if I was on a Ladder with the Rope about my Neck; only this was some Encouragement to me, I thought I might now have an opportunity to speak my last words to a Multitude which I thought would come to see me die; and thought I, if it must be so, if God will but convert one Soul by my very last words, I shall not count my Life thrown away, nor lost.

337. But yet all the things of God were kept out of my sight, and still the Tempter followed me with, But whither must you go when you die? What will become of you? Where will you be found in another World? What evidence dence have you for Heaven and Glory, and an Inheritance among them that are sanctified? Thus was I tossed for many Weeks, and knew not what to do; at last this Consideration fell with weight upon me, That it was for the Word and way of God that I was in this Condition, wherefore I was engaged not to flinch an hairs breadth from it.

338. I thought also, that God might chuse whether he would give me comfort now, or at the hour of Death; but I might not therefore chuse whether I would hold my Profession or no: I was bound, but he was free, yea, 'twas my Duty to stand to his Word, whether he would ever look upon me or save me at the last: Wherefore, thought I, save the point being thus, I am for going on, and venturing my eternal State with Christ, whether I have comfort here or no; if God doth not come in, thought I, I will leap off the Ladder even blindfold into Eternity, sink or swim, come Heaven, come Hell; Lord Jesus, if thou wilt catch me, do; if not, I will venture for thy Name.

339. I was no sooner fixed upon this Resolution, but that word dropt upon me, Doth Job serve God for nought? As if the Accuser had said, Lord, Job is no upright Man, Man, he serves thee for by Respects; Hast thou not made an Hedge about him, &c. but put forth now thy Hand, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy Face. How now, thought I, is this the sign of an upright Soul, to desire to serve God when all is taken from him; Is he a godly Man that will serve God for nothing rather than give out? Blessed be God; Then I hope I have an upright Heart, for I am resolved (God giving me strength) never to deny my Profession, though I have nothing at all for my Pains; and as I was thus considering, that Scripture was set before me, Psal. 44 12. &c.

340. Now was my Heart full of Comfort, for I hoped it was sincere; I would not have been without this Tryal, for much; I am comforted every time I think of it, and I hope I shall bless God for ever for the teaching I have had by it. Many more of the dealings of God towards me, I might relate. But these out of the spoils won in Battel have I dedicated to maintain the House of God, 1 Chron. 26, 27..

• THE CONCLUSION.

1. OF all the Temptations that ever I met with in my Life, to question the Being of God and Truth of his Gospel, is the worst, and worst to be borne; when this Temptation comes, it takes away my Girdle from me, and removeth the Foundation from under me: O, I have often thought of that word, Have your Loyns girt about with Truth: and of that, When the Foundations are destroyed, what can the Righteous do?

2. Sometimes, when after sin committed, I have looked for sore Chastizement from the Hand of God, the very next that I have had from him hath been the discovery of his Grace. Sometimes, when I have been comforted, I have called myself a Fool for my so sinking under trouble. And then again when I have been cast down, I thought I was not wise to give such way to comfort. With such strength and weight have both these been upon me.

3. I have wondred much at this one thing, that though God doth visit my Soul with never so blessed a discovery of himself, yet I have found again, that such hours

hours have attended me afterwards, that I have been in my Spirit so filled with darkness, that I could not so much as once conceive, what that God and that Comfort was with which I have been refreshed.

4. I have sometimes seen more in a line of the Bible, then I could well tell how to stand under, and yet at another time the whole Bible hath been to me as dry as a stick; or rather my Heart hath been so dead and dry unto it, that I could not conceive the least dram of Refreshment, tho' I have look't it all over.

5. Of all fears, they are best that are made by the Blood of Christ; and of all Joy, that is the sweetest that is mixt with mourning over Christ: Oh! 'tis a goodly thing to be on our knees with Christ in our Arms, before God. I hope I know something of these things.

6. I find to this day seven Abominations in my Heart; 1. Inclinations to Unbelief. 2. Suddenly to forget the Love and Mercy that Christ manifesteth. 3. A leaning to the Works of the Law. 4. Wandrings and coldness in Prayer. 5. To forget to watch for that I pray for. 6. Apt to murmur because I have no more, and yet ready to abuse what I have. 7. I can do

I do none of those things which God commands me, but my Corruptions will thrust in themselves. When I would do good, evil is present with me.

7. These things I continually see and feel, and am afflicted and oppressed with, yet the Wisdom of God doth order them for my good. 1. They make me abhor my self. 2. They keep me from trusting my Heart. 3. They convince me of the Insufficiency of all inherent Righteousness. 4. They shew me the Necessity of fleeing to Jesus. 5. They press me to pray unto God. 6. They shew me the need I have to watch and be sober. 7. And provoke me to pray unto God through Christ to help me, and carry me through this World.
